The "B" club is inviting BHHS students to attend its dreary dance in the school gym tomorrow from 8:30 until 11:30 p.m. Music will be presented by the "B-J's." The main attraction of the dance is the carnival, or midway, to be in the cafeteria. Committees are working under Tom Little, president.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday morning sophomores and juniors had what are called vocational tests. They are to help us decide in the future what profession or very general line of work we might be suited for. Some of the different tests were rather easy, but others left many students baffled.

The date for the senior high student council elections has been changed to May 17 instead of the tenth. Posters and pins were shored up on all students, beginning Monday.

Among the business discussed by Theta last week at the home of Diane Allmon was roller skating party planned for tonight. Presiding was Shirley Smith.

Last night at Devon Gables was the annual GAA mother-and-daughter banquet. Arrangements for the dinner were made under the direction of Ellen Strong, president, and Miss Jean Siterlet, sponsor.

Saturday the senior high choir students visited Michigan State university for the annual spring state choral festival. There were rehearsals during the morning and then a long lunch hour to provide for some sight-seeing, followed by the festival in the afternoon.

Saturday was also the day for the return of the seniors from their trip to Washington, D. C. They arrived in the Detroit train station early in the morning, greeted by sleepy parents and friends. It seems that everyone had a marvelous time, in spite of the continuing loss of sleep that always accompanies that sort of excursion.

The junior high choir kept right in pace with the record of the upperclassmen Thursday when adjudicator Hayden Morgan declared them good enough to earn a superior rating, 1, in the festival.

Tuesday was the annual meeting of all the coaches, academic and athletic, and principals of the eight schools in the Wayne-Oakland County League.
