THE PLAYBOY

by STETSON

This is how a cloud would feel if you could wear one. A miracle of lightness and cool comfort—combined with high style—is this fine-fur felt. Indeed, but for the glances and compliments you'll scarcely know you're wearing a hat. Debonair and light hearted, the Stetson Playboy features a raw edge, and narrow band. Offered in colors to rival nature's tones. $10.95

Schmidt-Dick Marriage Solemnized Saturday

In a double-ring ceremony in Kirk-in-the-Hills church, Saturday evening, Helen M. Schmidt became the bride of Glen M. Dick. The vows were heard by Dr. Harold C. DeWindt at 6 p.m.

The wedding reception was at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Schmidt, 922 Eastover drive, Bloomfield township. Glen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Dick of Walled Lake.

The bride chose a gown fashioned with a lace empire bodice styled with a scalloped portrait neckline and short sleeves. The silk skirt fluffed out from a fitted waistline and featured a wide border of ruffled lace at the hemline. A headpiece of pearls and lace held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a nosegay of roses and feathered carnations.

Delta Zeta Alums To Install Slate

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Richard R. Goodwin, 1830 Mohawk Court, Bloomfield Hills, Delta Zeta Oakland alumnae group II will install its officers at 8:00 p.m. Monday.

The traditional candlelight ceremony will be conducted by Mrs. Marc Hagerman of Birmingham, retiring chairman. Mrs. Donald C. Burch, also of Birmingham, will become chairman of this group for the coming year. Planning the programs will be the work of Mrs. Jerome C. Moore. Serving as secretary will be Mrs. W. J. Muelkenhagen, and Mrs. Fred W. Supnick will assume the treasurer's responsibilities.

Reports of the recent two day province convention in East Lansing will be given by members who attended. Of special interest will be an account of the program in which Mrs. Winfred C. Hinman of Franklin, received the charter for the Oakland alumnae group of Delta Zeta from Mrs. L. D. Olson, regional alumnae director.

Social service work at this meeting will be devoted to making fanzographs for Mrs. George Flessland, special teacher of the hard-of-hearing at Daniel Whitfield school in Pontiac.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Jack Sander of Birmingham will show motion pictures of England and Europe, taken while she was a member of the art history tour conducted by the University of Alabama.

Hostesses for this last spring meeting will be Mrs. W. J. Muelkenhagen and Mrs. Richard Pierce.

MATRON OF HONOR

was Mrs. Richard E. Hoshner of Pontiac. Joanne M. Schmidt of Birmingham was the bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in ballerina length gowns fashioned of aqua dotted white organza over aqua taffeta featuring a flowing back panel of aqua taffeta. Small face veils were attached to their circular hats of aqua and they carried pale pink feathered carnations and roses.

Richard Hoehner was best man. Bert Bryant of Walled Lake, Lee Percy of Union Lake, and Fred Perkins, Jr., of Cleveland were ushers.

MRS. SCHMIDT attended the wedding in a dress of beige lace over taffeta with beige and brown accessories. She had beige orchids. Mrs. Dick wore a navy blue dress with pink accessories and pink orchids.

For a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the bride wore a grey linen suit with red and white accessories.

For Silken Luxury

Nothing equals the luster and richness of pure silk—and when it's combined with worsted yarn of extraordinary fineness the result is a suit fabric that can't be matched at half again the price. A suit of CREMONA Cloth has a distinction you'll spot immediately. They're trimly tailored and in the most wanted colors.
