

The Week Ahead

The Rev. Russell L. Lincoln of the Birmingham Unitarian church will exchange pulpits Sunday with the Rev. Walter Kellison of the Farmington Unitarian-Universalist church.

Mr. Kellison, a popular speaker in appearances before the Birmingham church in the past, has chosen for his sermon topic "The Adventure of Becoming A Person."

The Birmingham church meets at Upton school, 4409 Mandalay, Royal Oak, at 10:30 a.m.

The junior choir, under the direction of Victor Ulrich, will present first Michigan performance of a new composition, "Genesis Rhymes," at Embury Methodist church Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

"Genesis Rhymes" was written by Dr. Onid E. Sellers, for many years a professor at Chicago's McCormick Bible Institute, for his daughter when she was five years old. It begins with "The Story of the Creation" and continues thru "The Descendants of Adam and Eve."

Thursday morning art class of the Congregational church of Birmingham meets today at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Audrey Van-Elois, 444 Samoset, Royal Oak. Men's fellowship dinner and program is tonight at 6:30 p.m. Dale Madden, Dale Carnegie course conductor, will speak on "Leadership in Business."

Missionary A of First Presbyterian church meets Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Fellman, 17115 Beechwood, for program, "The Negro and the Spirituals" by Mrs. E. J. Kempf.

Missionary B meets at 12:30 p.m. for luncheon at the church.

RECENTLY CONFIRMED at First Methodist church, these 66 children attended Saturday morning confirmation classes from October until the Easter season. They received their first Communion after being examined in a body and received into the church membership. In pulpit at left is Rev. Allen Wittrop, who guided the youngsters in their training. At right is Rev. Dr. Harry O. Martin.

You Won't See Latest Styles in This Show

With new officers installed only recently, the busy women of First Methodist church are getting ready to parade in a special fashion show which features not the latest thing, but the most interesting thing, in style since 1880.

Called "Fashion Fads and Fancies," the show and tea is scheduled next Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the church. The show will feature gowns of grace and elegance from the "My Fair Lady" era. Among them will be a red plush dress from Mrs. Henry McCarry, 829 Puritan, worn at the inauguration of President McKinley in 1897.

Another dress given to her family 96 years ago will be modeled by Mrs. Henrietta Rowley, 452 Park. Pattie Metzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Metzler, 4455 Charing Cross road, will take the part of the little girl. Narrator is Mrs. M. A. Kopka.

Mrs. H. Frye Ayers will sing songs appropriate to the different costumes, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Hultgren, 4151 Amber. Golden Years members of the First Methodist church will be honor guests at the style show and tea which will follow it. Nursery facilities are available for small children. Tickets for "Fashion Fads and Fancies" are in charge of Mrs. Paul Metzler, Mrs. Wesley L. Mueller, 2896 Dor-

Says Happier, Healthier Lives Can Be Gained

Happier, healthier, more purposeful living can be gained now through recognition of man's true sonship with God. W. Norman Cooper of Los Angeles told an audience here last Thursday evening. Man's divine birthright of freedom and well-being is already established, but it must be claimed, accepted, and used in daily living, Mr. Cooper declared.

On extended tour as a member of the Christian Science board of lecturers, he spoke under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Birmingham.

Christ Jesus recognized that God was the Father of man, and his healing work was done as proof of this fact, Mr. Cooper stated.

Emphasizing the vital importance of such recognition for men today, he said: "As we begin to understand our spiritual relationship to God, our Father, good flows into our experience. We feel the healing effect of spiritual understanding. We are enabled to have better and happier lives and to help others to have them."
