By MARIAN PATRICK

Walnut Lake Men's Club held their annual election of officers May 3 and chose Stewart Schultz to head the group for the coming year.

Others elected to office were Gordon Monks, vice-president; Ernest Jacobson, treasurer; Kenneth Bleby, recording secretary; Jim Wallace, corresponding secretary; Jack Flatman, program chairman. They will begin their duties at the June 7 meeting.

Entertain Family After Christening

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Layman of Blossom Lane entertained at family dinner April 28, following christening at St. James Episcopal church, of their first grandchild, Cynthia Louise.

Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. Douglas C. Layman of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Larson, the national representatives, and daughter Mary of Glen Ellyn, Ill. were also guests of the Laymans.

Surprise Don Irwin On Fourth Birthday

Donald Andrew Irwin of Westmoor road had his "big day" Saturday when seven of his little friends surprised him on his fourth birthday.

Among the small guests were Bobby Eisen, Kenneth Lombardi, Brian Brooks, Tommy and David Jones and David and Michael Watson.

Lunch was a favorite with the small fry, hot dogs, potato chips and ice and cake.

Although the guests were a bit too young for planned entertainment, they all enjoyed a game of baseball played with a plastic ball and bat that Donald received for his birthday.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre of Old Orchard Trail announce the birth of a daughter, Lois Mary, born April 16 at Helene Meinke hospital and weighing 5 pounds 12 ounces. The McIntyres moved here recently from Hazel Park.

Three other children in the family are Helene, S. Paul, 5, and Robert, 3. Helene and Paul are enrolled in Walnut Lake school. McIntyre is a mechanical engineer with Chrysler.
