

Conservatively few people will sign an agreement without knowing its terms. Yet most of our citizens vote into office men and women who make law, levy taxes, spend tax money . . . yet the average citizen knows very little about it. Most of us do not require officials to live up to promises.

Quarton PTA Board Hears Reports, Names Chairman

A joint meeting of the present and in-coming boards of the Quarton PTA was conducted recently at the home of Mrs. Carl Fischer, 1235 Lyonhurst.

Mrs. John Blaisdell, president, and Mrs. Robert Wyatt, PTA council member, gave a report of their recent trip to Traverse City, as voting delegates to the Michigan State PTA convention. Grant Barber, principal, also represented Quarton at the three-day state convention.

Mrs. Blaisdell then presented the Quarton PTA president-elect, Mrs. David M. Burnett, and her in-coming executive board Mrs. Don Car-gill, mother vice-president; John Fauver, father vice president; Phyllis Gardner, teacher vice-president; Mrs. John Green, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fred Canning, recording secretary, and Vincent Gilio, treasurer.

The retiring board members presented their annual reports and records to those who are replacing them and explained their individual duties.

AMONG Mrs. Burnett's committee chairmen for the coming year are Mrs. Jules Gail, clerical chairman, and Mrs. Charles Fay-ton, health chairman. PTA council members from Quarton will be Mrs. Robert Harvie and Elton Kerr. Mrs. Henry Merker is to be hospitality chairman and Mrs. Stuart Lottier will be in charge of the library.

Room mother chairman will be Mrs. Harry C. Hoyt, Jr., while the chairman of ways and means will be Mrs. Richard S. Dixon. Mrs. Carl Fischer will handle PTA memberships and Mrs. Jervis McMechan is to be museum representative. The Quarton Quill will be edited by Mrs. E. W. Averill, and Mrs. Gordon Craig will continue as publicity chairman and historian.

CUB SCOUT pack B-31 will have Mrs. Waldemar Adams as pack mother while Mrs. Richard DeHart will continue as pack mother for pack B-2. The girl scouts of Quarton will be directed by Mrs. Walter L. Canning.
