

Honeymooners Motor To Northern Michigan

Marjorie Gail Gorenflo and Douglas V. Cole exchanged vows in April, at the Ford Road Lutheran Church, Dearborn, in the presence of 60 guests. The Pastor Victor J. Luettow officiated at the wedding.

The couple, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Gorenflo of Upton road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell V. Cole of Dearborn, are honeymooning in Northern Michigan. On their return they will reside in West Dearborn.

The bride's gown was of nylon net, ballerina waltz length, with a wide edging of scalloped imported French hand clipped lace enhancing the redingote effect overskirt. Floral lace appliques were scattered on the front and back of the skirt. The lace bodice had a V-neck with short sleeves. She wore a handsome of pearls and rhinestones. The illusion veil was shoulder length with scattered rhinestones around the bottom. A spray of lilies with stephanotis on ribbon streamers descending from a prayer book was carried by the bride.

Mrs. Dennis D. Ryan was the maid of honor. Her aqua fallie gown has princess lines, and a matching crown with a shoulder-length veil completing her ensemble. Pink carnations and rose buds on an aqua fan was carried by the maid of honor. The best man was Dennis D. Ryan.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue silk organza gown with light blue flowers around the skirt. Her hat was matching in light blue and a corsage of gardenias was worn. The groom's mother wore a grey lace over pink taffeta gown with a matching hat. Her corsage was of gardenias and rose buds. The reception and buffet supper was at the bride's home. When the young couple left on their honeymoon the bride was wearing a navy suit with matching purse and shoes.

MRS. RODNEY ERICKSON Utah State Students Wed Saturday Morning

Suzanne Barbara Lendzon became the bride of Rodney Erickson at 10 o'clock Saturday in St. Hugo of the Hills church. Nuptial rites were read by the Rev. Francis Stack before 400 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lendzon of Bloomfield Village. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Erickson of Monroe, Utah.

SUE CHOSE for her wedding a gown of pure silk mouseline de soie, fashioned with a sabrina neckline and fitted bodice. The gown was trimmed with lace at the neckline and throughout the bodice and skirt. Her cathedral train was gathered into a French bustle. She wore a French pearl crown which secured her veil of pure silk illusion and she carried orchids and stephanotis.

MAID OF HONOR was Bernice Lendzon, sister of the bride. She wore an orchid nylon chiffon street length dress with a full skirt and matching cummerbund. Her headpiece consisted of pink and orchid flowers and she carried violets and pink rose buds.

Bridesmaids were Mary Lendzon, sister of the bride; Christell Lend-son, Louise Ploe, Carol Czarniecki and Joanne Krajenke. Mary Messner was flower girl.

Sue's attendants were all gowned in pink chiffon with full skirts and tiny flowered Juliet caps. They carried violets and pink rose buds arranged in colonial bouquets.

RICHARD Erickson of Ind., brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Stanley Lendzon, Francis Krajenke, Robert Krajenke, John Alvaro, and Joseph Ford. James Kotz was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lendzon wore a white lace and aqua chiffon dress and Mrs. Erickson chose a blue lace over satin. Both mothers had white orchids.

Following the reception at Red Run Golf club, Royal Oak, the couple left for their honeymoon to Niagara Falls. For traveling Sue wore a gray tweed dress with black and white accessories. They will leave May 15 for Logan, Utah where both are students at Utah State University.
