

ONE OF THE NEWEST FROCKS of the season shown Tuesday for Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills women at Kingsley Inn was a Samuel Roberts original of black-silk chiffon. Coin-dots pattern the bouffant skirt; . . . three skirts for fullness . . . worn with an imported white kidskin bolero. A chiffon scarf to match the skirt was tied around the neck. Models from Scholnick's of Washington boulevard, intermingled with luncheon guests showing "clothes that are different."
