Dateline: Derby

By LES CARTER

In the final, and most important, football meeting last Thursday between Barnum and Derby of the 1957 football season, Barnum's all-stars won, but not until after a close and bitter game. The Derby eleven held their opponents in the first half, but fell after a pair of Barnum TD's and two extra points. Final score: 14-0 in favor of Barnum.

The evening before, Derby's eighth grade allstars met Barnum's eighth grade eleven in a non-scoring game. The game was very good defensively, but provided little in the way of successful passing and running.

Large crowds supported both games, due largely to the pre-game pep assemblies held in both schools. At Derby's eighth grade rally, Mr. Ray Vavruska, eighth grade coach, emphasized the importance of good sportsmanship among the spectators. The crowd in attendance reflected his words.

In the ninth grade program, as in the eighth grade assembly, the football players were introduced. Both coaches, Mr. Vavruska and Mr. Bud Keller, received gifts from the teams. Jean Brooks, Pep club president, introduced the six regular cheerleaders, who then led several cheers. These girls are Janice Harris, Karen Smith, Terry McCurry, Gail Lopeta, Marcy Bullock, and Holly Schuler.

Seventh grade Miss Torchie is Wendy Miller.

Bloomfield Hills Spirits

Since it was "Spirit week" at Bloomfield Hills high school last week, students held a bonfire rally Thursday night before Friday's homecoming football game with Oak Park. Here cheerleaders work up some of the school spirit that inspired the Hills football team to win the game. Despite a cold rain, over 100 students turned out to see an effigy of an Oak Park football player tossed into the bonfire.

Extracurricula Activity Debated By BHS Teams

By JULIE HOOVER

The Junior town meeting of the air presented a radio broadcast in the Little theater at Birmingham recently. The debated question was "Should the schools limit the extracurricular activities of the students?" On the affirmative team were Dory Rodgers and Larry Cook. The negative team was composed of Mary Roberts and Clark Hudson. Jim Garret of WJZ was moderator. The advisor for the group was Robert Richards. The program was broadcast over radio station WJR Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

THE PRESS CLUB

There is a new club, the Pep club, at Barnum, sponsored by Miss Grubb, the gym teacher. The girls in the club go to every game Barnum plays, whether it's football, baseball, or basketball. The club helps the cheerleaders say their cheers.—Linda Vinton.

Halloween night after 10:30 p.m., Miss Brusie called students; if they answered the phone they received a silver dollar. Those who answered the phone were Jim Anderson, Sally Bowering, Steve Pearce, Robert Wolfe, Bonnie McDonald, Alice Patton, Faye Walters, Joyce Lee, Don Ringard, Karen Moorten, David Church, and John Perry.—Pat Cyran.

This year the ninth grade choir split in two sections because they were too large to all meet at one time. Each section elected officers. In the 1st section of the choir, which meets on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the officers are president, Nancy Chinn; vice-president, Judy Lawrence; secretary, Pris Holmes; treasurer, Bill Bond. In the second section, president, Betty Borchert; vice-president, treasurer, Gene Bordinat. This at the local hospital for the men-group meets Thursday and Friday. The choir is going to participate in the Christmas program and boy or girl who has shown outstanding achievement in the field of music.—Sharon Stokes.
