Barnum Students At Dress-Up Party

Gene Bordinat was host to 36 guests Saturday night representing the ninth grade at Barnum junior high school at the home of his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Bordinat of Midvale.

Something new... the party is a "first" in dress up parties planned by the boys, who hope to make it a monthly affair.

The young men plan and shop for the punch and goodies and decorate the home to follow a theme. They chose for this month "The House of Blue Lights" and danced to recordings of popular tunes.

A Welcome Tea

Terra Cotta Sculptors welcomed new members at a tea in the home of Mrs. J. S. Wintringham on Blossom lane. Being honored are (from left) Mrs. Hugh Martin, Wynkoop and assisting hostesses were Mrs. J. of Charles lane, Franklin; Mrs. Joseph Oros of Winlane, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Darl F. Caris of Haverhill road, Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Harold L. Geiger of Apple Tree lane, Franklin. Pouring is Mrs. Norman Thomas Chester and Mrs. J. C. Roberts.

Bloomfield Village Scouts Prepare Dinner At Outdoor Camping Site

In spite of Saturday's cold and snow, Boy Scout troop B-16 of Bloomfield Village school forged ahead with plans for instructions in fire-making and cooking their dinner outside. Each boy brought a carrot, potato, onion and one hamburger patty and what they prepared, they liked!

Together with their scoutmaster, George McCutcheon, they met at the home of Allen Schmier on Ardmore to proceed to their fire building destination. Schmier, a ham radio hobbyist, has generously given of his time to teach them signalling, although his own son is not yet old enough to be a scout.

At the Nov. 4 scout meeting, they held a court-of-honor at which 17 tenderfoot awards were given. Dick Beaubien of Roland drive received his first class badge which his mother pinned on him in the impressive ceremony.

Bill Gilmary and Scott Robson received their second class awards. Wes Rigby, a scout of many years, conducted the tenderfoot investiture ceremony. Mothers of tenderfoots received miniature tenderfoot badges.

This weekend the scouts of the Village will begin their annual sale of Christmas wreaths and garlands to raise money for their camping equipment.

The fondest of memories for Mrs. Robert Shepherd of Amberly Inger in the minds of 12 neighborhood canines who she entertained at a farewell "pooch" party Nov. 7, the day before they moved to Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Shepherd so loved the dogs

Instructors for the refresher courses in cooking, marketing and housekeeping from Michigan State cooperative extension service have been training the first volunteers who will, in turn, teach the patients.

Working under the occupational therapy department headed by Mrs. Pat Hanson and Mrs. J. McCurry, the first volunteers are Mrs. Wendell Mow, Mrs. Charles Durov, Jr., Mrs. Garrett Mow, Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels, all of Bloomfield Village and Mrs. A. E. Kimberly of Birmingham.

Those ladies go to the hospital from 9 to 11 a.m. Monday and Thursday. So far, they have been taking the training from the extension teachers but are about ready to take on the responsibility of teaching and rehabilitating the women so that they may more easily return to the regular routine procedures of homemaking.

More volunteers are badly needed in this program. Anyone interested, should call Mrs. Wendell Mow or Mrs. Garrett Mow.
