BAA to Present
Christmas Carrousel

The Bloomfield Art association is inviting you to ride the Christmas Carrousel, an exhibition and sale of exciting things for Christmas.

The galleries at 361 North Woodward avenue, Birmingham, will be open five week-ends beginning Nov. 22 through Dec. 21. A preview showing will be held the evening of Nov. 22 from 8 to 10 p.m. for the members. After that the public is invited Fridays and Saturdays from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9:30 and Sundays from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Don E. Ahrens and Mrs. Cyrus R. Osborn, co-chairmen of the social committee have asked Mrs. Cyrus R. Osborn, co-chairmen of the social committee have asked Mrs. Robert Schilling and Mrs. A. M. Wauter to be hostesses the evening of the preview for members.

OBJECTS on display and for sale will range from nostalgic toys to free form tree ornaments, painting sculpture, weaving, ceramics, cards and jewelry made by the members and a few outside artists. Franklin Page of the Detroit Institute of Arts, will jury the art to be shown.

This is the first opportunity the BAA has taken to show the creativity of the "Artists" segment of its membership.

Mrs. Anthony Moody, who last year won a prize at the Michigan Artists Show, will submit some of her paintings. Among her many accomplishments, are the murals in the auditorium of the Birmingham school.

A VICTORIAN roll top trunk has arrived from Wellfleet, Mass. It is filled with steam engines, cast-iron trains, and horse-driven fire engines and other interesting toys popular in grandfather's day. Eldon Anderson collects the toys and conditions them for sale.

Unusual fused glass panels will be shown by Miss Snea Kline. Emile Weddige, of the University of Michigan, will display lithographs and carnis. Mr. and Mrs. William K. Whitney are busy making delightful Christmas tree ornaments.

Mrs. C. H. Hall, Mrs. James C. Allen, and Mrs. Chaimers Smith are co-chairmen for the Arts and Crafts show.

Assisting them will be Mrs. Milton F. Coulson, Mrs. Rocco DiMarco, Mrs. John W. Jickling, Mrs. Owen A. Lockenbach, Mrs. Edwin N. Cobb, Mrs. M. L. Dacey, Mrs. Russell Haezger, Mrs. Arthur V. Handman, Mrs. Vance H. Day, Mrs. Cecil Dumbriague, Mrs. Lawrence Angevine, Mrs. Clarence C. Patterson, Jr., Mrs. Dale Douglas, Mrs. Paul Cooley, Mrs. Rowland J. Farrell and Mrs. Hilbert H. Delaware.

5-F Organize New 4-H Group

Nine young people recently organized a 4-H club at the Robert Brodie home, 275 Harrow street, Bloomfield township. Meeting under the guidance of Mrs. Russell Pickering, of Franklin, the new group elected Judy Eastburn as its president. Members also decided on a total membership of no more than 20, and planned their combined projects and social meetings for every other Friday after school. The group meets tomorrow at the Brodie home. Other officers elected are Sarah Snyder, vice president; Diane Barber, secretary; Helen Miles, treasurer, and Sharon Brodie, reporter-historian. Other members are Janet Adams, Jane Horton, Sarah and Cilla Snyder, and Carol Rodde.

Present Musical Program

Dr. John Phelps, former organist at the First Baptist church in Birmingham, and his wife, Dorothy, presented a program of organ and piano music at the Hammond Organ Society's meeting Wednesday at Grinnell's.
