

She's Flying High

With 15 solo hours to her credit, 17-year-old Ellen Coulter (center) now is training for her private pilot's license, thanks to a scholarship received from the Zonta club of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. Agnes Billings, the business women's club secretary-treasurer, made the club's first flight scholarship presentation. With Ellen is Norman Pearson, commandant of cadets of the Birmingham squadron of the Civil Air Patrol. Ellen, of 17251 Locherbie, Southfield township, has been a CAP cadet for three years. A Birmingham high school valedictory graduate, Ellen is now a freshman at Wayne University. Her scholarship amounts to approximately $400.
