 The eighth grade homemaking club recently went to the Bloomfield bowling alley for the afternoon. They came back to the school and prepared a "pancake supper" in the cooking room. Besides pancakes they had sausage, Canadian bacon and baked apples. The club is planning to give a party for an orphanage and make toys to give to the children. —Margaret Kemp

Lathrup Students Ready Productions
 Mothers will entertain their children with classroom presentations of everything from operettas to circuses at Lathrup school in the near future.
 Next Thursday Miss Lucille Gilbert's second graders and Miss Frances Dawson's first graders will present two performances of an operetta for small children called "A Dream Fairy." First graders will represent the sleepy children while Miss Gilbert's class will be the flower garden. The classes will present the operetta in the afternoon for the rest of the school and in the evening for parents.
 Mothers will be invited Nov. 22 to see a circus presented by Mrs. Edna Loeffler's first graders. The children are making their own costumes for this production.
 Next Wed. Miss Marilyn Burhop's sixth graders will present their dramatic offering, "Many Thanks," a play about Thanksgiving.

 Derby Spanish and general language teacher Mrs. Jean Pierce is planning to organize a Spanish club. The club will be open to all ninth grade Spanish students. The first meeting will probably be held after the Christmas vacation.

An undiscovered athlete of Derby has just been brought to light. Mr. Carl Pacacha, eighth grade block teacher, formerly played on the Duquesne university basketball team. In 1952 this player in Madison Square Garden in a collegiate tournament, and Mr. Pacacha cherishes a wrist watch inscribed with the date and year. Mr. Pacacha was also offered a tryout with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Atar, with 5,000 inhabitants, is the largest urban center in Mauritania, a sector of French West Africa larger than France itself.
