Newlywed Olivichs To Live in Northville

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—Joan Kathryn Blacklaw and Anthony Peter Olivich, Jr., spoke their vows Nov. 9 with the Rev. Robert Secrest officiating at the 6:30 p.m. candlelight double-ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride chose a gown designed of imported lace with fitted bodice, butterfly neckline, short sleeves and net skirt over white satin. A crown of seed pearls secured her veil of nylon tulle and she carried a cascade of white roses and ivy.

ANNETTE BLACKLAW was maid of honor in a blue taffeta gown with fitted bodice and bouffant hooped skirt and matching headpiece. She carried a cascade of yellow roses. Carl Tornow was best man and James E. Blacklaw was organist.

Mother of the bride chose a blue sheath sateen dress with white accessories. Mrs. Olivich chose a coral-beige lace sheath with matching accessories.

Wedding supper was at a beef house in Farmington and the group returned to the Blacklaws' home for the cake cutting ceremony. Joan selected a grey and white striped wool sheath dress for her going away costume. The couple plan to reside in Northville.
