

Father's Night at Quarton

Grant Barber, quarton principal, (from left) John Fauer, PTA father vice president, and Robert Seiler paused to chat during the fathers' open house at Quarton school last week. The PTA-sponsored event observing American Education week, gave fathers the opportunity to talk with their children's teachers and view the classroom achievements.

Little Football League Members Attend Banquet

The Little Football league banquet at Devon Gables the evening of Nov. 14 was a "howling success"! The junior varsity players of the Spartans, Wolverines, Browns and Tigers gathered, for dinner in the Hillside room. As each boy left with fond memories of the past season, he took with him a certificate and a photograph of his team.

The coaches, Don Morris, William Farrell, Steve Giffels, Larry Handren and Robert Wandell II, unit manager of the Spartan junior varsity, left as did the others, with a "ringing in their ears" that should last until the football season begins in '58!

Last Tuesday evening the Spartan varsity coaches were given the "same treatment" at their banquet at Devon Gables. The coaches were, Harlin Kriz, William Restrict, Jr., William Madrack, Bruce Noble and Clay Pate.

Heights drive home of Mrs. Fred Cornett. It was a meeting of Pine Hill unit III, and Franklin unit V. Guest speaker was Mrs. Cleveland Walcott of Birmingham. Her topics for the evening were "Better Foreign Policy" and "World Peace."

The Robert Brandons of Pine Hill drive have enough memories stored up after their recent trip to Hawaii to last a life time. Their trip began Oct. 18, when they motored to Los Angeles, where they boarded the Matsonia luxury liner for a five-day cruise to Hawaii. While on the boat they attended a "captains party," a "champagne party" and a "deluxe picnic" at the edge of the ship's pool.

As the Matsonia docked in Honolulu, native boys dove off the dock for money, and leis were put around all the passengers' necks. They stayed at the Moana hotel on the beach at Waikiki during their ten day stay in Honolulu. They toured the pineapple fields and sugar cane crops, side trips were taken through the mountains and around the island.

One of the many highlights of the trip was the navy tour they took around Pearl Harbor, viewing some of the ships of World War II that were docked in the harbor as a memorial. The Brandons also watched films being made of the islands and its peoples for a new cinerama movie.

Back at the hotel they were impressed with the Bayon tree court with its hanging Japanese lanterns. They enjoyed the foods of the Hawaiians, Chinese and Japanese.

After their trip back to Los Angeles, they spent a few days visiting relatives before their trip home ward.

The John Virgins of Meadowlark drive have just returned home after a busy week in Phoenix, Ariz. With them on the trip were their son and daughter-in-law, the John T. Virgins of Ravine road, Birmingham.

They stayed at the Arizona manor, a picturesque motel nestled at the foot of the mountains. Side trips were taken through the mountains and into the desert. The Virgins are convinced they will have to go back to Phoenix again as there was so much they didn't have time to see.

Mrs. William Gorenflo of Upton drive spent two weeks recently in Cincinnati, Ohio, getting to know her new granddaughter, Melinda Nancy. The baby was born to the William Gorenflos, Jr. Oct. 10. Three other children in the family are Debbie, Billy Paul and Tad.

The Harlan school PTA held an open house Nov. 13. Sixth grade children took parents on a tour through the school before a brief meeting in the school's multi-purpose room.

The parents were pleased to learn that the collection for the traffic light in front of the school on Adams road has been completed. The traffic light will be installed in approximately 60 days. Don Richardson, safety committee chairman and committee members worked long hours to complete this important task.

Another goal for the coming year is the Harlan school library. Their slogan for this drive is "four books per child."

After the brief meeting the parents visited the classrooms and met the teachers.

A library benefit dance will be held Friday evening, at 8:30 in the multi-purpose room of Eastover school. There will be ballroom and square dancing with Sam Jones calling. On the bandstand will be Frank Shafer's band.

The committee members planning the dance and giving their time for the school's library are Mrs. William Dewey, Mrs. Robert Fields, Mrs. Wilfred Bobler, Mrs. Hugh Carney, Mrs. David DeWitt. Others are Mrs. Philip Johnson, Mrs. Leonard Wiseman, Mrs. Ross Couzens, Mrs. Hilbert Hirschfield and Mrs. Robert Clark.

William McGuire, principal and sixth grade teacher of Eastover school, staged an "experiment" Nov. 12, at the school involving parents of the sixth grade class. Earlier this month each child was given the "Iowa Achievement Test," the "experiment" centered around parents grading the test, which has never been done before. In this way parents could see what their own child had learned in the past and where he needed help.

At the end of the evening each parent felt they knew their own child better through this experience.

A Webelo celebration took place at the meeting of the Cub Scouts of pack B-14 at Eastover school, Nov. 13.

Costan Spina and Tom Rosmusen entered into the Webelos and were awarded Boy Scout pencils. After the evening of games the cub scouts gathered around a blue and gold decorated table for barbecued hot dogs. A cake with the Webelo insignia on top was brought by Mrs. Kenneth Altman for the occasion and the cubs sweet tooth.

All the boys in Thornwood will be interested to know of their new 12-year-old neighbor, John Sanders, who moved to Oakhill drive with his parents, the Rufus Sanders.

For the past two years John has been competing in the Soap Box derby in Evansville, Ind. He has made his own soap box car

The Nelson Malow moved from their home on Oakhill drive to the Abby Turness on North Adams road. They are looking forward to spending Thanksgiving in New York.

The Muscular Dystrophy house to house campaign is slated for Dec. 3. Mrs. William Gerhard, area chairman, of 4866 Haddington is looking for volunteer workers for areas in Charing Cross Estates.
