BUSINESS BRIEFS

Three Join Keating Staff
Robert E. Miller (seated), sales manager of the Birmingham area for Howard T. Keating Co., greets three new additions to the firm's staff. Returning Miller's greeting are: (from left) William R. Merrick, Mrs. Christine Beckwith and William R. Chase.

Keating Keeps Expanding in Subdivision Field
Howard T. Keating Co., Birmingham-Bloomfield realtors, located at 18 Mile and Lahser roads, has added three new staff members to "be of better service" to home owners in the five square miles in and around Oakland Hills country club which was developed by Keating.

New Executive
Earl Putnam has been appointed general manager of the Charles J. Van Horn agency, 576 N. Woodward. Putnam, who lives at 8520 Wyoming, Detroit, has spent eight years in the insurance business and will supervise underwriting of all lines of insurance coverage. Before entering the insurance business, Putnam was a customer office representative for Detroit Edison Co.

Hills Man to Plan Project
Pontiac city commission plans to ask the federal government for funds soon in order that its planning consultant, David S. Geer, of E. Long Lake, Bloomfield Hills, may begin planning the city's first urban renewal project.

Gets Promotion
J. H. Tigelaar, of 236 S. Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, has been appointed manager of research and development for Cadillac Products, Inc., 7000 E. 15 Mile, Warren. Tigelaar moved to this area recently from Grand Rapids.

Chamber Adds Three Members
The Birmingham chamber of commerce added three new members recently.
They were National Bank of Detroit, Cranbrook-Maple branch; The Suzzette Shop, 241 Pierce, and Dr. John O. Esslinger, 622 North Woodward.
Dick Wilson, chamber president, said "this makes a dozen new members since the start of our fiscal year on May 1 and many others are pending, indicating a healthy growth for the chamber."

B'ham Residents Win Freezers
Mrs. Claude A. Phelps, 855 Hunter and Mr. Ernest Estrada, 1407 E. 14 Mile, both of Birmingham, are winners of a Westinghouse freezer in Wrigley supermarket's $40,000 freezer contest.
The winners' freezers will be filled with a free supply of meats and frozen foods. The freezer, which is 9.9 cubic feet, holds 510 pounds of frozen food.
The winners' names are pending, indicating a healthy growth for the chamber."
