Modern Home for Liberty Tool

Liberty Tool & Engineering Co., 2250 W. Maple, recently moved into its new home which was constructed at a cost of some $200,000. The building has 15,000 square feet of manufacturing space and employs 65. It is owned by Olaf Kroneman, Sr., who currently is building a home in Southfield township on East Lady drive. The construction job was supervised by Robert T. Eddy, 4721 Heather lane, Bloomfield township, and the landscaping was done by Mrs. Alice W. Burlington, 3891 Oakhills, Bloomfield township.

Birmingham Man Gets Promotion

Arthur S. Hudson of 256 Pleasant, Birmingham, who has been an assistant comptroller of Chrysler Corp. since 1952, has been appointed president of the company's marine and industrial engine division. Hudson, who joined Chrysler in 1943, brings to his new assignment a broad background in financial administration. During World War II, he handled administrative work in connection with the company's government contracts. From 1946 until the beginning of the Korean War emergency, he carried out special assignments on the comptroller's staff. With the increase in defense activity in 1950, Hudson was appointed defense contract administrator for the corporation, a position he held until his appointment as assistant comptroller.
