

JEAN KITTLE
MIDWEST 4-1766
ANNE YOUNG
MIDWEST 6-2647

'Holiday for Things' Sponsored by Guilds

BEVERLY—November 30, is the day selected by the combined guilds of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, for their "Holiday for Things" bazaar, in the social hall from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. There will be booths with toys, Christmas decorations, baked goods, a special booth for men only and a snack bar will be open all day. Mrs. Willard White is chairman for the affair and is assisted by the individual chairmen of the various guilds.

Badges Earned By Cub Scouts

SOUTH BERKSHIRE—Cub scouts in den 7, pack 8, met Monday at the home of den mother, Mrs. Harold Gustner, on Bermuda lane. The cubs are participating in a pack meeting achievement show Friday evening at East Southfield school. Rex Bossau has earned the gold and silver arrows and bear and recruiter badge. Bear badges will be awarded to David Galt and Gary Bagdale will receive wolf and recruiter badges.

Cubs and Carnival

VALLEY WOODS—An evening of fun was had by cubs and families of pack B-15 Valley Woods school, at their Carnival Thursday evening. Mrs. Donald Davis and cubs in den 1 had the clown down game, den 2 and Mrs. Arnold Wilson planned the ring toss, den 3, Mrs. Gordon Walker, the fish pond, den 7, Mrs. Frank Smith, the balloon bust and Mrs. William Harris and den 8 had the bean bag game.

St. Bede's Church Scene of Baptism

VALLEY WOODS—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Styles of Westlady road had their son, Randall Edward, baptized at St. Bede's church, Nov. 10.

Returning to the Sayles home for dinner were godparents Mr. and Mrs. James Clifford and paternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Z. Salczynski. Entertained at evening buffet supper were the Richard Stauffers and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zupanc of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. James Clifford of Oak Park, the Bernard Wilkies and Mr. J. C. Malpel, Jr.

Have You Met . . .

The Leo Humphrey family of Berkshire drive, Westchester? Attending Wayne university next February will be David, 18, and Skippy, 6, goes to Valley Woods school. Humphrey is with the Ford Motor Co., Lincoln-Mercury division. A group of 30 young people are expected to participate.

AILEEN STOCKER
MIDWEST 4-1038

Mrs. John Schade Speaks at Meeting

BEVERLY—The next meeting of the Our Lady Queen of Martyrs PTA will be tonight. Speaker will be Mrs. John Schade whose topic is "Three Dimensions of Youth". Mrs. Schade is the mother of seven children but still finds time to act as vice-president of the Wayne county Catholic Youth commission and Family Life chairman of the Detroit Archdiocesan council of Catholic women. She was also the University of Detroit mother of the year in 1953 and past president of the university alumni.

Preferential Tea Honors New Pledge

BEVERLY—The home of Mrs. Daniel Rempal of Marguerite was the scene of a preferential tea Sunday afternoon honoring Mrs. Merlin Holquist, a new pledge to the Eta Lambda sorority of the Beta Sigma Phi Birmingham chapter. Mrs. Henry Zudema poured at the tea table which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the traditional rose centerpiece made by Mrs. Wm. Goettermann. It is the custom to present a rosebud from the centerpiece to the new pledge.

Officers Named Have You Met . . .

The Robert Plaska's of Dunblaine who returned to Beverly Hills after a two-year stay in Milwaukee, Wis.? Plaska is sales manager of the heater production division of Huppover, a division of Hupp Corp. They have two children, Robert, who is married and a former graduate of Birmingham high school, now living with his family in Rochester; and Susan, 15, who attends Barnum. The family hobby is their cruiser, "The Shirley", which is berthed at Mt. Clemens.

Snowflakes are welcome, but not fall on snow or ice. Watch out for pedestrians. If one slips in your car's path, be sure you stop on time.

South Berkshires Social Briefs

Prior to the South Berkshires dinner dance, at Jeri's Golden Gavel room Saturday evening, area residents entertained at cocktail parties for neighborhood friends. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vigi entertained at smorgasbord hors d'oeuvres and cocktail party for 17 couples at their Leemore drive home. The Donald Sebys were joined at their home on Bermuda lane by five couples for cocktails and appetizers. Five couples attended a cocktail party hosted by the Upton Brannacks at their home on 13 Mile road. Four couples stopped in for cocktails with the Anthony Foleys at their Vernon drive home.

Mrs. Roy Forberg of Stellmar drive entertained neighborhood friends Thursday at Plum Hollow golf club luncheon and style show featuring Christian Dior fur fashions. Each guest received a miniature bottle of Christian Dior perfume. Mrs. Forberg's guests included, Mrs. Philip Diesel, Mrs. Marvin Cline, Mrs. James Thompson, Mrs. John Denman, Mrs. Alexander Nead, Mrs. Thomas Hassett, Mrs. Russell McKinley and Mrs. Charles Young.

Mrs. Nishon Meridian of Embassy drive entertained a bridal shower Wednesday evening honoring her sister, Dorothy Crutchfield of Southfield. Decorative cakes inscribed with congratulations wishes, mums and snap dragons centered the buffet table spread with delicacies for 25 guests. Games and conversation preceded opening of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Parish of Woodhaven lane, with their children, Ann and David, travelled to Ann Arbor recently for the 94th birthday celebration for Mrs. Parish's grandmother, Mrs. Ernest Sayre.

Five generations were represented at the home of Mrs. Parish's sister, Mrs. James Gilbert, of Ann Arbor.

Diana Gustner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gustner of Bermuda lane, celebrated her third birthday Friday afternoon with a party. Feasting on cake and ice cream were Diane's cousins, Robin Wallace, Craig and Karen Greening; one of her first Detroit playmates, Sandy Sage, and neighborhood playmate, Eric Sprinkie. Adults joining the fun were Mrs. Clifford Sage, Mrs. Dallas Sprin-

Westchester Social Briefs

Kla, Karen's grandmother, Mrs. David Dick of Walled Lake, and her two aunts, Mrs. Raymond Greening and Mrs. Robert Wallace. With three birthdays occurring within the week, 4-year-old Kevin Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Welch of Elwood drive, shared birthday honors with his parents Sunday at a family dinner. Guests included Kevin's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Welch, his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Welch, two aunts, Kay Welch and Isabel Pude and brothers, Mark and Chris.

Anthony Foley of Vernon drive and six of his Detroit friends returned last week from a hunting trip in the vicinity of Billings, Mont. The group bagged a moose, three deer and three antelope, transported cross-country in a 78 cubic foot refrigerated trailer, operated by a seven horsepower motor, with automatic cooling control. The trailer was specially built last year for Tony's Wyoming hunting trip.

Table Decorations Theme of Meeting

WESTCHESTER—Christmas greens and ideas will be presented by Mrs. Earl J. Potter, Mrs. Robert Dewar and Mrs. Harold Tjyman at the Westchester branch of the WNGFA Nov. 25 meeting in the home of Mrs. Edward Schloer, Jr. of Heathfield drive. Assisting will be Mrs. Robert Irwin and Mrs. Chester Sharp.

Holiday table decorations with greens and different ways of using candles will be demonstrated. Having finished their massages, the art group under the guidance of Marie Sturmer, will begin the seasonal project of table and door decorations for the home.

Monday evening Mrs. Robert Irwin on Bradford drive was hostess to the group.

South Berkshires Sponsored Dance

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—A gala evening of fun and entertainment was enjoyed by 45 South Berkshires couples Saturday evening at the annual dinner dance at Jeri's Golden Gavel room. Merry-makers danced to the music of Joe Star's trio. Festivities were enlivened with song fests and variety dances including polkas and promenade mixers. Gold and green holiday centerpieces designed by Mrs. John Long were given as prizes. Thanks goes to Mrs. Dallas Sprinkie, chairman, and her committee.

Westchester Social Briefs

An evening at Las Vegas was promised the guests attending the birthday party of James Gilme of Westbourne drive Saturday evening. Family and friends gathered to enjoy buffet supper after which a specially made tiered birthday cake was served to the 35 guests. Following supper the guests went down to the decorated family room for an evening of fun at Las Vegas. Margaret Johnson spent the weekend with a former school chum Sheryl Wittich of Berkeley enjoying fun, food, chatter and records. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hanson announced the birth of son Douglas William, Oct. 30. Four little Hansons, Laura, Mary, Ernie and Paul welcomed him home.

Party Sponsored By Association

VALLEY WOODS—"Why don't you do this more often?" was heard following Saturday evening's Fun and Surprise party in the Rudy Vidgiers recreation room, sponsored by the Valley Woods Women's association. Over 30 couples turned out for surprises and prizes and to enjoy buffet supper at midnight. The party was for support of activities for area children and civic improvements and its success was announced by Mrs. Charles Duell, association president.

Group Announces Teen Club Plans

VALLEY WOODS—Teen club plans for Valley Woods and surrounding area students in the first two years of junior high were made at an advisory committee meeting in the home of chairman Mrs. Emil Schanlike Wednesday afternoon. Serving were Mrs. John Westbury, Mrs. Walter Nyland, Mrs. Fred Polidan, Mrs. George W. Webster, Mrs. Gerald Joynt, Mrs. O. June Noye, Mrs. Albert Kacy, Mrs. John T. Kroll and Mrs. Norman Burns.

Leigh Young and Jerry Polidan will act as temporary chairmen for the first meeting Nov. 10. Following skating the group will return for supper and election of officers. Plans for the young set to conduct their own meetings and planning of programs with a maturity committee as advisors only will follow. A group of 30 young people are expected to participate.

FOR GRACIOUS LIVING

OWNERS SHOULD ASK

How long has your real estate salesman or broker been in business? How long has he operated in this community? What owners need most is an accurate market figure on their house when they wish to sell.

It takes years and years of experience and competency to make correct market sale appraisals. The cumulative experience of this office which has operated continuously in the territory and in the same location for more than 25 years is something you can afford to rely on and trust.

And for comfort and convenience for your family, this home offers you everything you could desire. Consider these features.

Living room with fireplace; Library. Dining room with corner cupboards; Breakfast room. 4 Bedrooms; 3 full baths; 2 Lavs. Lots of storage; walk-in and cedar closets. Full basement including Rec. room with fireplace; outside entry. Huge L-shaped Porch; Picket-fenced yard. Fine carpeting and draperies included.

In a fine location—on a large well-landscaped site—(120 x 165) 5 blocks to Quanton School—this is a home you will be proud to own and happy to live in. Call us for an appointment.

Quanton School 1193 Suffield

This attractive, all brick ranch home has an unusually large living room and dining ell. Porch 10 x 21 is glassed in and heated for year-round use. 3 charming bedrooms and bath. Full basement. Carpets and drapes included.

A modern Colonial—55 built—in the country is a pleasant rarity, and this is nearby Kirk and Bloomfield Hills school. Among the many extras are the built-in oven and range, marble sills, and glidermaster windows in the living room fireplace. There are 4 bedrooms, 2 full baths, and a lav. Library, large eating space in the kitchen, two car plastered garage, and large recreation space in the full basement. Impressively set on a beautifully high lot with many trees. A Colonial on a large country site is unique. Priced at only $43,500.

5 bedrooms, 2 baths

In Bloomfield Village, on a 150' site, very well landscaped. The large living room, two fireplaces, recreation room, separate dining room, 2 lavs, and screened porch are only a part of all that awaits you. Spotless condition and quick possession are two additional features of note. Rarely can we offer you a 5 bedroom home of this caliber and in this area at only $49,000. Owner has moved out of state.

A tree lined street provides a perfect backdrop for this charming fenced home on a corner lot near the stores and schools. 4 bedrooms — and in tip-top condition, and freshly painted. The large porch is tiled and screened. Separate dining room, full basement, dishwasher in the kitchen, storms and screens. On a paved street, in a neighborhood where there are plenty of playmates for your children. Priced to sell at $17,900. A 25 year FHA financing is available.

Our Integrity Merits Your Confidence In Us.

SNYDER KINNEY & BENNETT Realtors

239 S. Woodward Midwest 4-7000

Watt, Manuel & Snyder, Inc. Realtors

298 South Woodward Midwest 4-6300 Birmingham, Michigan Jordan 6-2323