sked Dec. 6 against Flat Rock Huron. Several games have been set for home contests, but all may have to be played on the opposition's floor since the new Yellowjacket gym is still under construction.

Only education facilities have been completed at the Thirteen Mile-Lakes location. The gym is scheduled for opening early in March. All football games this fall were played away from home because of the lack of a field.

At present many of the students are "holdovers" from the former Country Day location at Seven Mile and Wyoming. According to Assistant Head Master Paul K. Phillips, however, the school plans to concentrate on enrolling youngsters from the Birmingham area.

CLIPBOARD CLIPS—a caravan of an estimated 50 carloads of Birmingham fans, complete with police escort, drove from here to Royal Oak's Cass field for Friday night's Dundero game. The stands on the Maple side were packed. . . Dundero's large marching band put on the finest performance seen at an area high school game this year.

Cranbrook's frosh-soph team found itself behind, 26 to 7, in a recent game but came out on top in the final count, 33 to 32, in by far the highest scoring game in the area this season. . . A freshman, Biff Jones, was the offensive stand-out for Bloomfield Hills' fine reserve team this fall. He scored 19 touchdowns. Other offensive stars were Don Carlson, Phil Burke, Ron Gilchrist and Marc Miller, wise top men defensively were Paul Irvine and Dave Stanton. . . Birmingham's javvee gridders had their standouts, also. Offensively, the Maple sparkplugs were Benny Hurd, Tom Cloutier and Gordon Loveland, while defensively it was George Harris, Steve Perry, Leigh Stowell and Gary VanGeisen. . .

VanGeisen and George Forrest were named honorary captains on the way home from the final game. . . This was the first year the young Maples have finished unbeaten in Eastern Michigan league competition.

Birmingham high's annual fall sports banquet will be held Nov. 26 at the high school. . . Baker junior high, in Troy finished unbeaten for the fourth straight season. The Baker gridders have been tied twice in 24 games. . . Southfield high's undefeated football team will be honored Dec. 11 with a banquet at the high school. Neal "Doc" Fenkell will be toastmaster.

The Southfield Babe Ruth league plans to add another team in 1958. . . Kermit Ambrose, Birmingham's successful cross country coach, spoke on the harrier sport at coaches clinics held at Trenton during recent teaching conferences.

Jim Doran of the Detroit Lions had the greatest day of his seven year pro career against San Francisco during the '57 season, catching seven passes for 150 yards and three touchdowns.

Four Southfield Gridders On All Inter-Lakes Squad

Southfield high's unbeaten Blue Jays pace selections on the 1957 Inter-Lakes all-conference football team.

Coach Monte Charles' newly-crowned champions captured four positions on the 11-man honor squad, chosen Nov. 11 at a meeting of coaches and officials of the six conference schools.

Rugnerup Farmington placed three men on the team. Walled Lake copped two posts and Waterford and Vandike each were honored with one selection. Berkley failed to place a man on the squad.

Southfield gridders named to the all-conference team were Halfback Tom Ridley, Quarterback Bob Filar, Center Todd Grant and Guard Jim McCann.

RIDLEY and Filar are both juniors. All of the honor squad members but the two Jay backs and Farmington and are seniors.

Rounding out the first team are Ends Charles Day of Vandike and Frank Clappson of Farmington. Tackles Dennis Vansichlen of Wal-lei Lake and Jon Rise of Waterford, Guard Ken Nikkila of Farmington, Halfback Dave Catherman of Farmington and Fullback Don Yeangin of Walled Lake.

Five Southfield players—E and Mike Yoshonis, Tackle Bob Brown, Guard Rod Quirk and Backs Zim Zurcher and Joe Moore—were named to the 22-man honorable mention squad.
