Shed persons who want to lose weight are compelled to eat more sparingly, to exercise more. Yet the desire for food and the unwillingness to exercise keeps many people overweight. Their health becomes impaired, they believe. Their thinking appears to them one thing, their stomachs another.

MRS. JOSEPH MUSCHELLA

Repeat Wedding Vows In Catholic Ceremony

Shrine of the Little Flower was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Jean Yvonne Nutter to Joseph William Muschella. Father Christopher performed the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nutter of Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Muschella of Glenhurst, Birmingham.

The bride chose a gown fashioned of chantilly lace and tulle featuring a lace bodice with short sleeves and long pointed gloves. A headpiece of matching lace and pearls secured her finger-tips with silk illusion. Pearl earrings and necklace completed the bridal picture. MaryAnn Davis was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sue Kraus and Jane Leich. Attendants were gowned in red velvet with small white caps with veils. Jack Gauthier stood as best man. Ushers were Jerry Kurgava and Ralph Nutter III.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE selected a turquoise velvet dress with matching accessories and Mrs. Muschella chose a dusty rose dress with white accessories. The new Mrs. Muschella changed to a blue two-piece dress for her honeymoon to Virginia and Washington. The couple will reside in Royal Oak.

JENNIE POND

Leading Lady Is Bride-Elect

Village Players' Jennie Pond is playing a double role these days . . . as leading lady in the Nov. 23rd closed show and a new bride-elect.

Her parents, the Irving L. Pond, announced her engagement to Wilbrandus Johannes Koppus VI, at a recent dinner party. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wybrandus Johannes Koppus of Groningen, the Netherlands.

Miss Pond is a graduate of Michigan State university, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta and Theta Alpha Phi. Her fiancé received a master of science degree from Delft university in the Netherlands, and is also an alumnus of the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich, Switzerland.

Jennie plans to introduce her fiancé to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke P. Pond of Philadelphia over Thanksgiving. The couple will be feted at several parties, including an open house given by the prospective bride's sister,

Chicken Divan—It's Divine! Say Sorosae

"Chicken divan" was the concoction Collegiate Sorosis alumnae enjoyed at their recent potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Arthur P. Wilkinson, of Arlington road, Birmingham.

Mrs. Robert A. Reid, of Tilbury road, Bloomfield Village, and Mrs. Morris Purdy, of Gleggarry road, Bloomfield Village, prepared the main dish.

"It's one of those dishes you can prepare a day or so ahead of time to have ready for guests," says Mrs. Reid.

THE CASSEROLE DISH was made with steamed chicken breasts and broccoli chunks. Over it the cooks poured a sauce made with thick stock, whipped cream and Parmesan cheese.

The alumnae of the University of Michigan sorority viewed samples of Christmas wrappings and other items at their annual November outlook.

The Birmingham alumnae are selling the items to support their sponsorship of a new project, Mrs. Arthur N. Hill, of Buckingham, Birmingham, is chairman of the project to aid a center and clinic for the aged in Ann Arbor.
