

ECCENTRIC PHOTO BY A. E. APERAUCH

SANTA COMES TO BIRMINGHAM!

Santa has left samples from his North Pole shop and Birmingham's Toyland is filled with the colorful wonders of his work. Among the bright young eyes to widen with joy over Toyland already were those of the Graham children, here completing a shopping tour with their mother and father.

Birmingham Eccentric photographers accompanied the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Graham and their four children on a tour of Birmingham's Toyland.

The Rev. Graham accompanied sons Bob and Jimmy as they looked over items to delight a boy's heart at Christmas time, 1957.

Their mother went along with Carol and Janet who admired the dolls and other toys Santa has ready for modern young ladies.

Now, turn the pages and as you do you'll see some of the toys they liked at Birmingham area toy departments. Along with them you'll find many more of Santa's suggestions for making a youngster happy on Christmas morning.

