

This Jaymar concert spinet piano might be just the inspiration a child needs to build a desire for more musical knowledge. Jacobson's Children's Shop sells this model for $49.95 at their N. Woodward location.

Neater Closets For Yule Season

Latest word from the North Pole indicates that all closets can be neater and made to utilize every bit of space.

After last year's investigation, Santa Claus advises home owners to get ready for the avalanche of Christmas gifts that will find their way to the closet for future use.

If a small closet is doing a man-size job, try skirt, pants or blouse hangers, put racks on the back of the door and use tie and belt racks to give you more room.

THE BEST-DRESSED closets this year will be wearing shelf liners and trims that range from paper to plastic and from smart plain colors to jaunty prints depending on the owner's taste.

A proud closet is a neat one. Wardrobe and shoe bags, storage and hat boxes in colors to match the trim will do the trick.

New Look for Trains

Especially for female Casey Jones are brand new model trains available in a rainbow of colors

Christmas Command

Ready! Aim! Fire! will be the commands heard Christmas morning as generals attack the enemy with their durable plastic cannons that fire tennis balls.

Mom will get a lot of carpets cleaned by her little helper with this Bissell Little Queen carpet sweeper which Janet discovered at Bodine's on N. Woodward. Price is $2.98.
