Convertible Converted To Total Wreck a fractured nose and a few bruises. Police reported Masters was traveling at about 80 miles per hour and charged him with reckless driving. Masters was headed west on Maple when the crash occurred. His car went out of control when a rear wheel struck a curb, spinning the vehicle sideways against the utility pole. Masters estimated his speed at about 55 miles per hour. The utility pole was not damaged.

Only a few minutes before this photograph was taken Saturday evening at Southfield and Maple roads, this total wreck was a 1957 convertible. The car was nearly severed in half when it struck a utility pole at the intersection, then spun around several times. The impact tossed the driver, the car's only occupant, to the pavement at the center of Southfield road. The driver, Thomas Ray Masters, 21, of 1552 Bennæville, Birmingham, escaped with

THERE LI. BE a Turkey day football game in Birmingham after all. (Birmingham high school's varsity for the first time in umpteen years didn't meet their annual Thanksgiving foe. Royal Oak Dondero. That game was made a part of the regular season this vera: A determined hand of lads from Pierce school cub scout pack will take the field Saturday for the rubber game to decide the champion. Participants are Dens 12 and 10.

Den 12 was pack champ. In a challenge game Nov. 16, they lost to Den 10. Score—35 to 14. Den 12 asked for a rematch, hopes to regain the pack gridiron crown.

WEVE BEEN ASKED what church the Rev. Robert Graham is associated with. (He's the father of the four children whose visits to Birmingham Toyland were pic-tured in last week's Birmingham Eccentric). Mr. Gra-ham, in case you don't already know it, is assistant min-ister at First Presbyterian church, Birmingham.

ONE OF BIRMINGHAM'S postal clerks has encountered many unusual requests from telephone callers, but nothing quite so unusual as the one she received Monday. A woman called, wondered why the post office had just delivered her turkey. "Why couldn't you deliver it on Wednesday?" the caller inquired. "Why, we send the mail out just as soon as we can," the clerk answered. "Well, I haven't any room in we kitchen to store it till Thursday," the woman said. "I'm scirry, but we've very little space here ourselves," answered the clerk. "Well?" remarked the woman, I certainly lon't see why I should have to find a place for it in my refrigerator! Why couldn't you just keep it in the refrigerator you have down there?"

THOSE LONGER PARKING SPACES may be here to stay. Several months ago, Birmingham City Commissioner Florence Willett suggested several feet be marked off between regular spaces to make it easier to move cars in and out. The test area has been in front of the Community House. Said Police Chief Ralph W. Mosley this week: "People seem pleased with those longer spaces. At first they were confusing, but now motorists like them real well."

Robert Casadesus and the Detroit Symphony played to gether in a concert last Thurgday evening at the Ford Auditorium and did much to compliment the reputation of each office of the program began with the playing of Mozart's "Einle Neine Nathmusik" which Paul Parage executed with crispness and aplomb. This set the tone for a concert which was not going to present any problems to the audience. It was a program of Mozart, Liszt, Franck, and André Block (inc) be confused with Ernest). NEITHER OF these pianistic NEITHER OF these pianistic works, then, are really Caadesus's forte. He plays both easily, intelligently, and forchly. But we must wait till the next time and hope stam for himself that will better display his real genius—the music of Mozart, Bach, Scarlatti, Debussy, Ravel, Stravinsky, or Prokoffer. Not every frock becomes the period of music the most gifted artist.

Paray's accompaniment always was sympathetic and provided a viat. It was an evening of distinguished playing—a credit to all who participated. BETWEEN NOW AND CHRISTMAS stores in every section of the nation will be busy serving customers. At times crowds will push and jostle in efforts to make their purchases. It is at such times that pickpockets get in their most effective work, because it is difficult to be aware whether the jostling is normal, or made by a clever thief who takes advantage of crowds to acquire his loot. "Both men and women should be very careful to keep their money and valuables beyond easy access to crooks," Charles Mortenson, local Chamber of Commerce manager warns. "Women's purses are a main target, as well as the wallet pockets of men. If you are suspicious of somebody in a store, report at once to the manager." BETWEEN NOW AND CHRISTMAS stores in every sec-

THINGS GET MIGHTY CONFUSING when you live in Troy yet your phone number is listed in the Pontiac telephone book. To make matters worse for one high school student his Wanderer knows, he goes to the Bloomfield Hills schools, On top of that, his home has a Birmingham mailing address. He's Jack Bohr, I5, of 2555 Charnwood drive. This Wanderer wanted to know what he tells people who ask where he comes from. "Michigan," says Jack. ### Troy Tax Election Set for Jan. 20

TROY—A special election to drop Troy's tax limitation from 15 to 8 or 5 mills has been tentable of the special special in order to give the matter further study.

Lockhartsaid that if the council passes a resolution at its next regular meeting Dec. 2 the election can be held on Jan. 20. Outniel requires more time than a week to reach agreement, it will be "awfully hard to set it up for Jan. 20."

THE SPECIAL election stems from a petition presented by a citizen's group asking that the limitation be cut down from its present 15-mill top. The petitionersell has indicated it favors an 8-mill limitation. Both propositions will be on the ballot when the election is held.
