Seek Beagle Dog To Prevent Need For Rabies Shots

An 11-year-old Birmingham girl will have to take the dangerous rables treatment if the beagle dog that bit her is not located by next Monday.

that bit her is not located by next Monday. Ran, 11, of 1448 South, Loyalas treated by a private physician for a bite on the hand after the incident occurred Saturday. The girl's father, James G. Ryan, said Lynda described the dog as a beagle with white and brown markings. The dog was in the yelling's of 14 Mile and Southfield children of the same statement of the same st roads.

Ryan asked that anyone owning or seeing a dog of that description contact. Birmingham police, so that the animal can be observed for rabies symptoms.
