Cottage Warming Party
Surprises the Orlandis

Recently Derby road friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Oldani, 1577 Derby, surprised them with a cottage warming party for their newly constructed home on Mullett Lake in Michigan. The couples gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis.

Bearing useful gifts for the cottage were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weith, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hanner, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nette, Mr. and Mrs. David Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Norman James, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sturmer, Dr. and Mrs. Jay Van Zoeren and Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darden, Mr. and Mrs. George Pezzer, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sengstacken, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foraker, Mr. and Mrs. Al Pirih and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eddy. The group arrived in gayly decorated and interesting looking costumes and spent the evening singing and dancing.

Just returned from a two-week visit with relatives is Mrs. Ted Young of Witherbee road, Troy, Manoir.

One week was spent with her brother Robert Hogen and family in Birmingham, Ala. Also houseguests of the Hogens were Mrs. and Mrs. Alfred E. Hogen of New York city.

Another week was spent visiting friends in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Edward Kary of Pembroke road returned recently from a month visit with her sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Costello of Boston, Mass.

Highlight of the trip was the 25th wedding anniversary party of the Costinos.

Mrs. Robert Sims of Witherbee road entertained her bridge club Thursday evening.

Members were Mrs. Ford Banes, Mrs. Charles Benson, Mrs. Robert Wack, Mrs. William Dye, Mrs. Paul Nelson, Mrs. James Trew and Mrs. William Yocht.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leavens of Pembroke road recently announced the arrival of a second son, Christopher David born Sept. 29. The baby has a 6-year-old brother, Mark Alan.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hopper of Gracfield road have as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson and son, Craig, from Columbus, Ohio.

While attending the University of Michigan Mrs. Hopper and Mrs. Johnson were sorority sisters.

Highlight of the visit came Saturday afternoon when the two couples attended the University of Michigan-Ohio State football game in Ann Arbor.

Expecting to have a quiet birthday celebration, Norm Henriksen of Brooklawn court was greatly surprised when his friends started arriving at his home in answer to invitations sent out by his wife. Joining in the festivities were Mrs. and Mrs. Maurice Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. James Ebel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gowan, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, Mr. and Mrs. David Finney, Mr. and Mrs. William Beard, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Beck, Mr. and Mrs. William Savers and Mr. and Mrs. Lars Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Russell Chick, 1971 Pembroke, returned recently from a family reunion in Toledo, Ohio. While there they were the houseguests of the senior T. Russell Chicks.

Also attending the reunion were Mrs. Edloe Doman and daughter Susan from Baltimore and Mrs. Bernard Renick from Jackson, Mich.

Three-year-old Stevie Burd celebrated his birthday recently at a luncheon party with his playmates. Guests included Marilyn Ripson, Pepper Nuffer, Debbie Pogany, Bruce and David Eames, Vicky Jacobs, Dane and Debbie Christy, Jodi Davis and brothers, Jeff and Doug.

The children enjoyed a birthday cake topped with little boats bearing lighted candles.

Twig sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard and Maisteth of Derby road celebrated their seventh birthday at a luncheon party.

Mike and Jeff's guest list included Stephen Gobert, Mickey Rivard, Chuck Greene, Bobby and Tommy Spieckel, Hop Hansen, Tammy Berd, David Chick, Timmie Smith, Scott Calderwood, Mark Leander, Mark Black and Mike Connelly.

Two cakes depicting little boys dressed in polo shirts, blue jeans and saddle shoes carrying candles centered the luncheon table.

The Gracfield Terraces welcomed as newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Werner and their 2 1/2-year-old son Gerhardt, Jr. and baby daughter, Charlotte, born Oct. 18. The Werners reside at 1657 Gracfield.

Werner is associated with Utica Bend Corp. in Utica, Mich., as a service representative. His native hometown is Munich, Germany which he hopes to visit soon so his parents can see their grandchildren.

Both the Werners have a special love for skiing as they met on a skiing trip at Snow Valley in Mich. Werner also spends his spare time doing photography work.

A trip to their hometown of Chicago, was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blackfield, 1734 Gracfield, and their 2 1/2-year-old daughter, Robin.

While in Chicago, the family stayed with Mrs. Blackfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ahlstrom and took advantage of their time to visit friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Webster and children, Peggy, Beverly, Wendy and Wayne, 1845 Pembroke, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Carl Robinson and their children, Patrick, Sandra and Pam who have moved here recently from New York.

Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Robinson were classmates at Wittenburg college in Ohio and went on to nursing at Henry Ford hospital.

A newcomer to the Gracfield Terraces is Miss Mary Ann Hubchen from Clarkston, Mich., and now residing at 1704 Gracfield.

Miss Hubchen attended the University of Michigan and is now teaching seventh grade English and social studies at Derby junior high. Her favorite hobbies are art, painting, sculpturing, and writing.

In order to discuss policies and plans for the coming year present officers and 1958 officers of Troyton Manor Homeowners association met Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Phil Kinnworth of Brooklawn road.

Discussing the bylaws and other business were Mrs. Charles Hooker, president of the association, George Whitehead, Leo Clougherty, Robert Disler, Rutherford Hayes, Mrs. Mike Faber and Mrs. George Frandsen.
