Homeroom Mothers Plan Coffees for Teachers

The Harlan school homeroom mothers have planned several "get acquainted coffees" introducing teachers and making party plans for their classes for the coming year.

Mrs. Walter Kingscott of Orchard Hill drive had a coffee in her home Nov. 19 for Mrs. Vary, fifth and sixth grade combination teacher. Assisting Mrs. Kingscott was Mrs. Lewis Horvath.

A coffee was held at the Walnut Hill drive home of Mrs. Richard Figgins on the evening of Nov. 20, for Miss Beverly Runciman, fourth grade teacher. Mrs. Brady Brenton, another homeroom mother, assisted the hostess.

Richard Coolman, fourth and fifth grade combination class teacher, was present at a coffee given by Mrs. Fred Trickey of Orchard Hill drive, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Richard Spaulding assisted during the evening.

Friday evening Mrs. Leon Butler of Oakhill drive hosted coffee with Mrs. Emerald Schenk and Mrs. Francis Jones, for Miss Yvonne Spring, first grade teacher.

Mrs. S. G. Brady of Fox Run has made plans for a coffee in her home Mon. evening. Assisting Mrs. Brady will be Mrs. Harold Gwiltam and Mrs. Harry Macke. Miss Kay Wheelock, second grade teacher, will be present.

Cub Scout Pack B-34 gathered in the multi-purpose room of Harlan school for their Nov. 11 meeting. The cubs theme for the month was "Indian Games". Each den displayed and enacted the Indian game of their choice during the evening.

Receiving awards were cub scouts, Rolly Starr, Tom Starr, Peter Wallace, John Duffer, John Schreffler, Chris Todd, Alan Perkins and David Ewing.

Games were played during the balance of the meeting.

Eastover school had its first "Conference day" Nov. 18, under the new report card system adopted by the Bloomfield board of education.

Appointments were set up ahead of time, giving a 20 minute conference period with the child's teacher. A report sheet was made out by the teacher and discussed with the parent at this time.

The "Conference days" are scheduled three times a year at which time, both parent and teacher will compare the child's progress. The child graded on work habits, personal and social adjustment.

Appointments began at 8:30 a.m. through 4 p.m. then from 7:30 to 9 p.m. for working parents. To keep appointments on schedule a bell was rung at twenty minute intervals, bringing a scurrying through the halls. The children liked this new plan as it gives them a day off from school.

Girl Scout Troop 324 of Eastover school attended a film on adolescence by Walt Disney, the afternoon of Nov. 20, in the school's multi-purpose room. Miss Myrtle Cummins, school nurse, gave a talk and answered questions during an open discussion.

A "snack preview" was attended the same morning by many mothers in the Eastover area.

The Paul Johnstons of Bolingbroke will have Mr. and Mrs. William Manning of Buffalo, N. Y. with them during the Thanksgiving holiday weekend. The Mannings are relatives of Mrs. Johnston's.

Celebrating Thanksgiving with the Tyrus Homewoods of Walnut Hill drive are Mrs. H. J. Homewood and Miss Janet Homewood, mother and sister of Homewood. They will arrive from Madison, Wis. Wednesday evening and will stay through the week end.

The Charles Bethels are now residents on Meadowline drive formerly of Brookfield, Wis. They have four children, Charles, 11, Rebecca, 7, Steven, 5, attending Harlan school. At home is Gregory. Bethel is an account executive with Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. Gardening is one of the family's interests.

Another new family in Meadowline drive are the Douglas Browns of Royal Oak. Their children include, Penny, 11, John, 9, attending Harlan, and Susan, 4.

Brown is assistant controller at the Fruehauf Co., Detroit. Swimming and skating are among the family's favorite sports. Mrs. Brown is girl scout leader of the sixth grade Harlan.

The Glick Barbosa family are new residents to Beech road. They have three children, Sandra, 15, a pupil at Derby junior high, Ronald, 11, and Nancy, 5, attend Harlan. Barbosa has his own business, the Grinding Products in VanDyke, Mich. The family are fishing and golf enthusiasts.

Newcomers to W. Orchard Hill drive are the John Evans family of Bridgeport, Conn. Their three children are, Gene, 12, attending Derby junior high, Ann, 11, and Melissa, 5, pupils at Harlan.

Evans is a branch manager of Remington Rand. The family are looking forward to the spring of the year when they can begin their landscaping and gardening.

Before the library benefit dance at Eastover school Friday evening area residents planned pre-dance parties. Among the hosts were the Douglas Clarks of Tutbury lane and the Roger Blackwoods of Charnwood road.

The David DeWitts of Tutbury road hosted a "Crazy Hat party" at their home after the Michigan Ohio State game Saturday. The 40 attending arrived in hat creations of all descriptions.

Centering the buffet table were a pair of blue and gold football helmets. In the helmets were attractive arrangements of yellow mums.

Houseguests at the DeWitt residence for the weekend were the Dr. B. Myers of Columbus, Ohio. The Myers and the DeWitts get together each year for the Michigan-Ohio State game.
