My Neighbor's Wife By Doris Miles Disney. 182 pp. New York. Doubleday & Company. $2.95. Reviewed by JEAN LENESE

"MY NEIGHBOR'S WIFE" is not at all a pretentious novel. Its plot is straightforward, the characters everyday, and the setting a familiar Connecticut community.

The Little Black Book: A Manual for Bachelors By Cadwallader and Nudnick. 260 pp. New York. Doubleday & Co., inc. $2.75. Reviewed by PHIL THOMAS

These bright, young bachelors who long ago mastered the techniques of getting girls without getting married will find Cadwallader and Nudnick's "Little Black Book" more entertaining than instructive.

The Message of The Scrolls By Yizael Yadin. 189 pp. New York. Simon and Schuster. $3.95. Reviewed by GAY G. SYKES

Ten years have passed since the first Beduin peered into the caves near the shores of the Dead Sea and found, instead of his sleep, ancient scrolls that were to excite the imagination of the world as no other literary discovery in modern history.

THE AUTHOR qualifies admirably to tell the fascinating story of how these original scrolls came to light, were brought to America, and finally bought and returned to the Hebrew University in Israel.

The Business Aspects Of The Funeral Should Be Understood By EVERYONE
There was a day, not long past, when it was disturbing to the family to speak of life insurance. Today it is an accepted part of family planning.

Today's Funeral Director, his facilities and services are modern, and dignified. They are based upon a determination to provide the highest type of personal service, both before and at the time of family crisis.
