John P. Emmett

New Cleaning Firm To Service Area

Allied Dry Cleaners of America, a newly formed organization with national expansion plans, announces the acquisition of the facilities and resources of Ridley Cleaners, Inc. and Flash Cleaners, Inc. Ridley, a well known name in Detroit since the turn of the century, has concentrated coverage of the metropolitan Detroit area. Flash has outlets in Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Two area men attended the annual president's victory banquet in Detroit tonight of Hostlich, Inc., honoring the firm's Michigan salesmen, service and office personnel for their quota achievement.

They were John Wilson, 1562 Southfield road, and C. R. Carrigan, 1470 Washington. The two were among 50 Hostlich-Michigan personnel attending the banquet.

and director of all financial aspects for the new company, and Paul Lanast, president and director of sales and operations.

Emmett previously was associated with Detrex Chemical Industries, Detroit, for many years, as assistant to the president and an assistant sales manager of the dry cleaning division.

Allied will operate their Southern Michigan outlets under the name of Ridley-Flash Cleaners. Each of the many neighborhood plants will feature complete one-stop service for wardrobe cleaning as well as personalized shirt laundering.

Former B'ham Man Gets New Position

Former Birmingham resident William T. Hedberg has joined the data processing equipment division of Royal McBee Corporation as a sales representative at the Detroit district office.

A Princeton graduate and Navy veteran, Hedberg, 44, was previously with Interwoven Stocking Co. in Detroit as a sales representative. He now is residing in Metamora with his wife, Barbara, and their four children.
