

Thanksgiving Tribute

Second graders in Mrs. Joan Beamer's class at Walnut Lake school decorated a corner of the room recently in typical Pilgrim style to help celebrate Thanksgiving. The children described their creation in an inscription which reads: "This is the kind of house the Pilgrims lived in long ago in Plymouth. They came to America in 1620. They wanted to be free to go to their own church."

Lathrup Club Plans Bazaar

LATHRUP — Preparing for a Christmas bazaar Dec. 5 at Birmingham country club, 55 women worked from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Hoop-in-the-Woods Wednesday.

Some of the Lathrup women's club members brought their sewing machines, others worked with needle and thread on colorful prints and felts making useful and decorative items to be sold before the 12:30 luncheon. The sale will begin at 11 a.m.

Black candle boards made beautiful holders for dried arrangements. Some of the unusual dry material was gathered from the fields around Lathrup by Mrs. Robert Dymont, ways and means chairman.

Luncheon was prepared for the working staff by club President Mrs. Elmer Craig and Mrs. Frank Fleischer.

Lathrup Social Briefs

Nab Two Youths In Hubcap Thefts

BLOOMFIELD — Police recovered 29 auto hubcaps Sunday which were stolen recently by two boys, 13 and 14 years old.

A telephone tip to Acting Chief Norman Dehnke uncovered the loot.

The boys are residents of the township. Because neither had been in trouble before, Dehnke said, he assigned them 500-word papers to write on why they were wrong to steal.

By Monday morning all 29 hubcaps had been returned to their owners. Dehnke said the recovery completely wipes out his list of missing hubcap complaints.
