

Ganchans Return From Vacation

BEVERLY — What would you think if you received a telephone call from Texas asking you to fly to New York city for four days—all on a few hours' notice? This happened to Mrs. R. F. Ganchan of Northester. Seems Ganchan has an aunt in Beaumont, Tex. Mrs. Inez Holland, who does such surprising and unexpected things. She had planned a trip to New York for business and pleasure with her daughter but at the last minute her daughter was unable to go; hence the call to Mrs. Ganchan. They had four wonderful days

Births Announced

EAST SOUTHFIELD — A son, George William, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Duane Tsch of Everett Nov. 20. He is their second child. A daughter was born Nov. 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirkby of Fairfax. Tamara Sue is joined at home by a brother, Danny. She is the first girl born in the Kirkby family in 28 years.

In that glamorous city, seeing "My Fair Lady" (front row seats, no less), "Auntie Mame" and "Happy Hunting," as well as visiting unusual places to eat.

Mrs. Holland returned to Birmingham with Mrs. Ganchan for several days visit but due to illness was unable to see the countryside, but says she will be back.

The Beverlys

Show Presented By Church Choirs

BEVERLY — The senior and junior choirs of the Church of the Ascension on 14 Mile road, presented a variety show Sunday evening. The senior choir entertained with a kitchen symphony and Carol Redfern of the junior choir played a flute.

Janice Ross, Elizabeth Blackwood and Bonnie Brisky performed several scottish dances, and Billy Grant played the bagpipes. The junior group also had a rhythm band. Mrs. Laura Blise is music director.

Association Names Officers

BEVERLY HILLS — The Beverly Hills Artisan Improvement association met Nov. 14 at the home of George Hodges of West Rutland. Officers elected were: James O'Callaghan, president; Allan Tisdale, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Roberts, secretary and Clem Rgbb, treasurer. George Hodges and Robert Kratt were elected to the board.

At a board meeting Nov. 18, new block captains were appointed. They were Tom Sullivan, Frank Baska, J. J. Gandel, Frank Nevers, Alex Silagy, Gordon Walker and Edward Kiloroto.

The association's "Know Your Neighbor" campaign will be continued and block captains will cover their areas and urge neighbors to re-register to participate in the Westwood Village elections early in 1958.

A home decoration contest during the holidays was discussed and two prizes were awarded. The next meeting will be Dec. 9 at the home of Walker, 31227 Pierce.

Mrs. Walter McLean of Marguerite and her sister, Ellen Brooks, arranged a surprise birthday dinner for Mrs. Aileen Stocker, Friday evening. Guests were Mrs. W. Ballantyne, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mack, and Mrs. J. N. Canavan of Beverly Manor. Other Detroit area guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. McLean, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Palazol, Mr. and Mrs. D. Schill, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hichert and P. E. Gillis.

Following the dinner the party moved to the Ballantynes for dancing in their recreation room.

Blue Birds Take Hospital Tour

FRANKLIN — Blue birds have migrated to Franklin. Blue birds, who are campfire girls, junior grade, that is.

Since October, nine third grade girls have been meeting every Tuesday after school in Franklin Community church to be the first unit of that national organization in the community.

Leadership is provided by Mrs. A. W. Bohne and Mrs. Ralph Smith. Sponsorship for the unit being is with Miss Mary Kopus and Mrs. J. Koch, teachers at Franklin school and Mrs. Joanne Parker, a nurse at Ford hospital.

Recently the group took a field trip to Ford hospital and were taken on a tour of the operating rooms, the pediatric department and the institute's kitchen.

So far, only third graders are members, locally, although the program is arranged for girls from the second grade through the fourth, after which they become campfire girls.

Holiday Workshop Theme of Meeting

EAST SOUTHFIELD — "Anything Goes" extension group had their "Christmas Workshop" lesson recently at the home of Mrs. P. Henderson of Marshall. Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Robert Bush demonstrated how to make projects for Christmas giving and decorations.

A Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Cadwell of Royal Oak. Members will bring a project they made to show the group.

Family Holiday

WING LAKE FARMS — W. D. Sexauer and family of Ottawa lane will visit her sister, Mrs. Edw. Baker of Detroit, Thanksgiving day.
