Franklin Social Briefs

Coming home to rest after several weeks in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hackler are planning to spend Thanksgiving with their family on Colony Hill. The Hacklers have been in Naples, Fla., since their winter home for the season. It's meant more hours shopping and relaxing than they had in relaxation one expects of such a trip.

A holiday with dear old friends has been planned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall of Wellington road. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hodges and children, Judy and Lynn, will spend lots of targets on his first trip, but failed to bag anything.

This has been a hectic week for the Carl Rasmusses, who moved Tuesday from their home on Romany Way to a brand new house on Herseyvale.

Helping them have been Rasmussen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rasmussen of Milwaukee, who weren't sure whether they could stay long enough to see grandson, Greg, christened on Sunday.

The Richard Furys and the Leonard Lawtons, neighbors on Martha Hill, frosh daughter of the John Hills of Romesey road, Martha hasn't been home since Sept. and

Primary Group Sets Yule Party

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — An early visit from Santa Claus has been planned by the South Berkshires Women's primary group for children in the seven and under age group.

The Christmas party with treats and gifts will be held in the Alexander Nead recreation room, 30195 Leemor, Dec. 7, from 3 to 5 p.m. Mrs. Paul McGarity, primary group chairman, and her association officers will plan the event.

South Berkshires Social Briefs

Homeward bound college students expected some today to join their families for the Thanksgiving holidays are:

Ron Beyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Beyer of 13 Mile road, a freshman at Ferris Institute.

Bob Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson of Concordia college in Milwaukee, Wis. Bob is active in student and dormitory council work.

Dick Weiner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Weiner of Lahser road, freshman at Albion college. Dick is athletic representative for his dormitory to the inter-mural council and corridor representative for his dormitory student council.

Also expected home today is Carl Andeer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jarl Andeer of 13 Mile road, a freshman at Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill. Carl served on the homecoming committee and writes sports articles for the school publication, "The Observer."

Mrs. Patrick Welsh entertained Mrs. Irvin Meloche, Mrs. Alexander Nead, Mrs. George Williams and Mrs. Charles Young at the Detroit Yacht club bridge luncheon and fashion show Tuesday.

"Around the World" theme was carried out in decorations, menu and prizes.

Area youngsters experiencing an exciting week at Proud Lake recreation area camp from Beverly song leader, Joanne Meloche, Gene Cook, Alan Wright, Linda Wood and Suzanne Young.

Following the Michigan State-Minnesota game Nov. 17, at East Lansing, the Robert Gadfielders of Corp drive hosted a supper at their home for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Ambt. Ambt is a former Minnesota alum.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnett joined the group for conversation and listening to favorite records.

Ike and Sally Ross and daughter, Cherry, returned to their Embassy drive home Monday after spending a delightful three weeks vacationing at Cocoa Beach, Fla.

The couple also visited with their sister in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Franklin Social Briefs

There's more to Thanksgiving than just eating the Bert Coburns have decided, so they've invited guests for an evening of square dancing Friday at their home on Seenic.

Despite the soapy weather Monday, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Barnes of Franklin Hills drive did manage to leave the ground for Chicago and have a few days with old friends stopping over there from Corona Del Mar, Calif. The Barnes' returned Friday.

Karen Gavie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gavie of Ovid, is coming home from Purdue for Thanksgiving to make further arrangements for her Dec. 28 wedding to Phil Roberts. Her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roberts of Indianapolis, will also be the Gavie's guests for the holiday.

In the meantime Mrs. Gavie has been busy sewing the four bridesmaid dresses, which are just about ready for final fittings.

Home from Purdue, too, will be Martha Hill, frosh daughter of the John Hills of Romesey road, Martha hasn't been home since Sept. and

Woodcreek Farms Sets Yule Dance

WOODCREEK FARMS — Though they might start the evening by throwing a little precautionary salt over their shoulders, Woodcreekers are going to pool-pool the Friday the 13th hoodoo and have their annual Christmas Dance Dec. 13.

The music of Eddie Schick's orchestra will play for the affair at Birmingham country club.

Sponsored by the Woodcreek association, the dance has been a popular event and Maurice Tye-hem, chairman, forces a good turnout.

Also on the committee are William Wightman, William Dorman, Arthur Busch, David Wingo and Ross Plewes.

First Deer

BINGHAM FARMS — What makes a man happy? Ask Bill King of Bingham lane and he'll tell you the thrill of bagging your first deer. While at Dr. Brigg's camp near Atlanta Tuesday, King brought down a buck and this is the first time he's been hunting in 12 years.

News copy submitted early is necessarily given preference, so the "early bird" usually gets the space.

Holiday Agenda Planned by Group

VALLEY WOODS — Announcement of a varied program for the coming months succeeded in making the Valley Woods Women's association membership drive ten a success. Mrs. Walter Nyland received 50 area women in her home on Eastlady road.

Mrs. Daniel Adams and Mrs. Robert Collie presided at the table. Mrs. John Heflin arranged the centerpiece.

Mrs. Charles Deuel president, welcomed guests and members. Plans for holiday parties for area children were announced and this year the children will pack baskets with new toys for the Oakland county Children's home.

Group Sponsors 'Sitters Club'

VALLEY WOODS — Under the Valley Woods Women's association sponsorship Mrs. Robert Anderson is the new chairman of the 'sitters club.' Realizing the problem of obtaining proper sitters for short periods of time during the day, a toddlers exchange program will be worked out. Anyone interested in more information should call Mrs. Anderson.

Hi-Fi Teen Club Plans Pizza Party

SOUTH BERKSHIRE — Thursday evening, Sue and Laura Cline hosted the Hi-Fi Teen club meeting at their home on Stellmar.

The group will gather Friday evening at the Ralph Meloche home, 30388 Stellmar drive, for pizza party and dancing.

New members welcomed into the club are John Jorgensen and Pam Searls.

Square Dance Club

VALLEY WOODS — A reminder is sent out to Valley Wood Square Dance club members that Dec. 8 at 7:30 p.m. will be the next date to swing your partner at Valley Woods school. Mrs. Thelma Groves, in charge of arrangements, extends an invitation to anyone wishing to be a guest or join the group.
