Southfield Hi Notes
 By JUDY CADDELL

After Southfield won the Inter-lakes conference title by beating Farmington Friday, the team dunked coaches Monte Charles, Will Slankie, Cecil Bowie and Ed Hayden in the pool. With a little "shuffling" all the players, full uniforms and a few spectators joined in the swim.

At the pep Assembly Friday, seniors Judy Adams, Sharon Bonner, Judy Caddell, Dana Douglas, Jeanne Hale, Pat Harden, Ellen Jenks, Judy Labra, Arlene Mikovitz, Joan O'Brien and Connie Wardle put on a skit depicting the downfall of the Farmington Falcons and the victory of the Southfield Jays.

Sue Sheridan entertained at an open house Friday after the game. The party was in honor of the football team and to celebrate the winning of the championship.

"A Message to Garcia" and "How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix," were minor bits of excitement compared to Gene Gourley's report on the football game Friday to Jeff Zateil who was home with a cold.

Lately the art classes have been filling the north corridor show case with interesting and colorful samples of their work. Some of the classes are now working on lettering and as a project are lettering their favorite sayings. Among the many are, "Old fishermen never die, they just smell that way," "Shape up or ship out" and "All that glitters is not gold."

Kingswood Column

"Twelve Angry Women," a feminine version of the award-winning "Twelve Angry Men," will be presented by Kingswood's senior class Saturday evening, Nov. 16.

Under the direction of Miss Julia Koestering, the girls have been busy rehearsing for a month.

The women jurors fighting to agree on a verdict are played by Lynne Norvell, Betty Rose, Nancy Powell, Ginny Wood, Judy MacPherson, Missy Kirk, Lydia Moore, Sue Prindle, Diane Hamady, Michele Tait, Julia Gilderleeve, and Tina Wijkman.
