William Dennis Appointed Officer of Exchange Group

The Detroit Builders and William C. Dennis as secretary of the group organized to privately sponsor the Aqua Follies in Detroit.

He is a member of the planning committee of the Detroit committee for Neighborhood Conservation and Improved Housing and of the Association Executives of Michigan.

A short trip to Cincinnati, Ohio was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch, 973 Brooklawn, and their four children, Sarah, Betty and 1-year-old twins, Bobby and Billy.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burd and children Jeff, Steve and Doug of Wrenwood road had as their house guests last weekend Mr. and Mrs. William McMaisters and their children Tommie, Mark and Lynn.

The McMaisters were neighbors of the Burds in Akron, Ohio. While here, the children enjoyed an afternoon at the zoo and a visit to the cider mill in Franklin village.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Banes of Witherbee road had as their house guests recently Banes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Banes from Randallstown, Md.

The senior Banes enjoyed seeing their granddaughters, Betty and Susan, a trip to eat at Frankmouth and some sightseeing in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen L. Pyc moved to their new home at 865 Norwich, in Troyton Manor recently from Detroit. They have a 14-year-old son Ralph who attends Derby junior high.

Pyc is associated with Ford Motor Co. in the engine division as a senior designer in manufacturing engineering production equipment.

Mrs. Pyc attended Wayne State university and enjoys card and gardening when weather permits. Photography is Pyc's favorite pastime. He also enjoys such outdoor sports as fishing, hunting, and golf.

A big Indian guide powwow met recently at Baldwin school. Attending were all the Birmingham tribes. A few of the youngsters from this area were Rich Seeburger, Mike and Steve Beans, Glynis Rich, Chuck Greene, Mickey Richard, Steve Gabert, Jack Klenck, Mike and Jeff Monteth.

A talk was given by the Chief of the Indian Guide Longhouse, Frank Seeburger. Also on the agenda were Indian dances and a display of artifacts.

An enthusiastic crowd of neighbors and friends attended the Pembroke Manor association dance last weekend.

Dave Farley and his orchestra provided the music for this annual fall event. Novel "mix-up" dance arrangements kept the couples dancing most of the evening. The "bumpy-daisy" routine was one of the highlights of the evening.

Ten boy scouts of troop B-25 met at Pembroke school Saturday for a day's outing at Kensington park. A five mile hike over several nature trails occupied the morning. Lunch was cooked over a camp fire.

Common work, fire building and wild life identification were stressed. The boys were passed on some requirements for higher scout ranks. Initiation for candidate scouts and board of review are scheduled for tonight's meeting.

Attending the outing were, Tom Tobias, Tom French, Mike Robertson, Jon Hawley, Jack Trumbull, Pat Richardson, Pete Millington, Jim and John Piggott and George Ward III.

Fathers accompanying the boys were George Ward, Jr., and Ray Howard.

Afternoon newcomers of South Oakland County are planning a public card party at the Northland hospital house, Mrs. C. W. McKee is chairman of the 12 p.m. party. Mrs. McKee of Royal Oak and Mrs. Eckman are in charge of reservations.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the public editor about them.

their new guns. In the evening Tommy's grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brock and his great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nolan arrived for a family reunion.

For the main purpose of nominating officers for the coming year the Troyton Manor Homeowners association met Thursday evening at Derby Junior High.

Charles Hooker presided over the meeting asking for the reports from the various officers and committee heads before nominations were submitted by the floor.

A general discussion period was held after the meeting.

Cheering for the University of Michigan when they played the University of Iowa Saturday were the Beta Sigma Phi sorority members and their husbands.

Seen boarding the chartered bus from the Troyton Manor area were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gologuly and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Clark.

The group had a picnic lunch before the game and gathered at one of the member's home after the game for a spaghetti dinner.

The St. Jane's Canine Guild held its monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Maurice Baumann of Norwich road, Oct. 28.

Mrs. Charles Pennington conducted the meeting laying plans for the coming year and discussing arrangements for November's important affair at Holy Name church.

Houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker of Brooklawn road this past week was Barker's mother, Robert B. Barker from Mansfield, Ohio, here to observe at Pembroke school. With Mrs. Barker for the same purpose was Mrs. Paul Abbott.

Late in the week, Barker drove from Mansfield with his daughter Caroline and son, Bill. The senior Barkers drove Bill to General Motors Institute in Flint over the weekend for an open house in honor of parents after their first year at the same purpose, Bobbie, 2, and 3-month-old Johnny.

One look tells you...there's nothing newer in the world!

New deep-sculptured styling
 New Interceptor V-8 power
 New Cruise-O-Matic Drive
 New Ford-Air Suspension
 New Magic-Circle Steering

You'll be ahead with Ford's new Interceptor V-8 and Precision Fuel Induction. There's nothing newer than these engines that give you up to 300 hp. (Cruiser-power) from less gas! One recent is Precision Fuel Induction, a wonderful low carburetor, fuel feeding, and combustion system.

You'll get up to 15% more gas savings with new Cruise-O-Matic Drive. (Equipped with the new Interceptor V-8, New D1 position, used for all normal driving, lets you move smoothly, automatically—with just a touch of your foot—from solid-feeling take-offs right up to highway cruising speeds.

You'll ride on a cloud instead of a spring with Ford-Air Suspension. Four air pillows literally soak up the bumps! And Ford's new air suspension relieves the car every time someone steps inside or luggage is loaded. An extra coat option, you get all this at traditionally low Ford prices!

You'll steer with a feather touch with Ford's new Magic-Circle Steering. Nothing rolls like a ball, and that's the secret of Ford's handling ease. Free-moving steel balls in the steering mechanism are virtually friction-free—give you the closest thing yet to power steering! Come in and try it!

Come in today... Action Test America's only world-proved car! 58 FORD
