

PTA Sponsors An Open House

EAST SOUTHFIELD.—An open house from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. is planned by the East Southfield PTA Nov. 12. Parents will have an opportunity to meet with the teachers in their rooms and see the children's work accomplishments.

Pro. Terence Metz from Jamaica will speak on "Education in Jamaica."

Mrs. Robert Boltwood is in charge of the program. First grade room mothers, Mrs. James Andrus, Mrs. L. D. DeBose, Mrs. Harold Stark, Mrs. Ernest Bigham, Mrs. Harold Kowick and Mrs. John Svalya will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Paul Dipman was elected new historian at the Monday night board meeting. The meeting was held at the Fairfax home of Mrs. Avery Parsons.

PTA officers attending the meeting were Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mrs. Gerald Eastick, Mrs. Dewey Coult, Mrs. Eugenie Lloyd, Mrs. Homer Harris, Mrs. Ray Kent, Mrs. Robert Pettit, Mrs. George Sedorchuk, Mrs. Frederick Henderson and Marion Simms, principal.

working. Mrs. Sinclair attends Wayne State university and is a member of the dance workshop. She also teaches dancing to children at Burton school in Huntington Woods and is active in the creative dance club there.

Woodward Frontage 100 Feet
Depth 125 Feet

ZONED COMMERCIAL
Excellent Location
$300 per foot
HURRY!

Mldwest 7-0744
RAYMOND E. CECIL
Commercial Broker

AILEEN STOCKER
MIDWEST 4-1038

WEST BEVERLY EAST BEVERLY

Beverly Social Briefs

Theodore Wills and Mrs. William Simpson attended the International Tea at Beverly Hills representatives last Thursday. The arrangement they displayed was in a "French Theme."

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Campbell, Jr., of Madoline road announced the birth of a daughter, Margaret Mary, on Oct. 19. Gregg, 5, Mary Kay, 3, Timothy, 2, and Sue Ellen, 1, are delighted to have another sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gramader of Warwick road, held an open house for friends, neighbors and relatives, on the occasion of the Bar-Mitzvah of their 13-year-old son, Alan, who became a member of the Congregation Beth Shalom.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Stephenson of Riverside, returned from a recent vacation at the Homestead, in Hot Springs, Va., and New York City.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. D. McCartney of Arlington drive had Mrs. McCartney's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Broderick of San Francisco, as guests for a few days this week.

Mrs. Thomas Hurns of Birchwood, chairman of the Birmingham Women's club, took 14 members of the group out to the St. Clair Detroit Edison plant, Oct. 29. They had lunch and an escorted tour through the plant. Following the tour, they saw the movie, "The Atom Comes to Town."

The Wm. Compton of Lecherbie road recently returned from a trip to New York and through the New England states. In New York city, they saw Judy Holiday in "Bells Are Ringing."

On their return they had guests from Des Moines, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Zobel. Zobel is a radio and TV commentator for station WHO.

Following Town hall Friday, Mrs. Harlan Ritze of Riverside drive entertained Mrs. Wm. Bailey, Mrs. H. Fisher and Mrs. Lee Hassell at her home for lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron W. Templenayr of Kirkshire drive took advantage of the Fall weather and the Michigan-Minnesota football game to take a week's vacation, and see the Michigan team win and to see friends in Madison, Wis. and St. Joseph, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ureel of Buckingham drive have recently returned from a three-week vacation at Hallandale, Fla. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Shaw and her two children.

Airman Apprentice Thos. C. Hawbitzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hawbitzel of 14 Mile road, having completed his boot training at Great Lakes, left Oct. 26 for Norfolk, Va., to serve a tour of duty with the Navy aboard the aircraft carrier, USS Forrestal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staroba of Westworth drive entertained their son, Frank, Jr., and his bride, last week end.

Col. and Mrs. Joseph L. McNeerney of Auburn drive had Mrs. McNeerney's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barnes of Indianapolis, as week end house guests.

The Thomas Hurns of Birchwood have had a busy October. They recently returned from a two-week motor trip to New Orleans where they stayed at the Roosevelt hotel while attending the Tax Executives Institute convention.

While there they visited the antique shops and historical spots of the French Quarter and enjoyed a short trip to Biloxi. They also attended a cocktail party at the 200-year-old home of the first Spanish governor of Louisiana.

The Hurns also attended the

Display Flowers

BEVERLY HILLS.—The Beverly Hills garden club will have their monthly meeting today at the home of Mrs. Frank Tout on Locherbie drive. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Jos. Campion, Mrs. Wm. Penney and Mrs. Arnold Young. Members will display their Thanksgiving flower arrangements.

Trailer Fire Causes $3,500 in Damages

SOUTHFIELD.—Fire caused an estimated $3,500 in damage Sunday to a trailer owned by James Stutta, 28, of Southfield.

The trailer was parked in a lot on Southfield between 12 and 13 Mile roads.

Fire officials said the blaze broke out while Stutta was asleep. He was awakened by the smoke and fumes and called the fire department.

Stutta suffered minor burns and was treated at William Beaumont hospital.

It's an I for an I when two egoists get together.

Hostess Club

WEST BEVERLY.—The hostess club of West Beverly will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Elmer C. Ray, W. 14 Mile road. The club turned in 540 items to the Needlework In-gathering and received a fine ovation for their accomplishment. They are now beginning a new project which will be decided at this meeting.

Newcomer

BEVERLY HILLS.—Another youthful newcomer is Claudia Marie, daughter of the Victor J. Bonmarinos of Westworth, who was born Oct. 8. Their other children are Victor, Jr., 6, and Margaret Ann, 8.

Jordan's 37,500 square miles comprise an area about three-fourths the size of New York State.

Alterations and Remodeling

All work planned and designed carefully, built correctly and completed speedily.

WEBSTER BUELL

4126 N. Woodward, Royal Oak
Liberty 9-4100

Real Estate Salesmen

We have more business and listings than our present fine staff can handle. We need two top experienced salesmen who wish to work in a legitimate office with broker co-operation, top commission and bonus arrangement, and high earnings. Only experienced salesmen need apply for confidential interview.

JULIAN C. FRANK CO.

19507 LIVERNOIS
DI. 1-9090

Girl Scouts Guests Of Explorer Troop

LATHRUP.—Members of two senior girl scout troops were guests of Explorer troop LC-1 on a ride at Roy's ranch Sunday afternoon. The party was chaperoned by Vince and Dorothy Thall who invited the group to their recreation room for games and dancing following the ride.

Guests of the Explorers were Mary Lou Murray, Pat Cattell, Linda Brethern, Carol Graveline, Linore Hobbs, Kay Plantree, Mary Lou Hines and Ann Barr.

The Explorers were Gene Gourley, Darryl Pfister, Leo and Bill Mueller, Steve Marshall, Don Harshman, Kim Kimberley, Bob Ewart, Bob Knighten and Ted Garrish.

November Dance

BEVERLY HILLS.—The Beverly Hills dance club are having their November dance Saturday evening at Birmingham country club. There will be several pre-dance cocktail parties given by members among whom are the Robert J. Opler of Seminole drive, the Joseph C. Fobey of Verona Circle, and the Roland L. Badders of Hillside drive.

Visit Hospital

BEVERLY HILLS.—Brownie troop 821 visited Gasow Veterinary hospital on Woodward last week. Members of the troop are Barbara Lackey, Marsha Masser, Janice Soldeen, Sheryl Somes, Cheryl Minch, Linda Drake, Lois Erickson, Nancy Ryckman, Judy Fehr, Peggy Newman, Leslie Hammelf and Josephine Lloyd.

Visit Museums

BEVERLY.—Cub Scout den four with their leader, Mrs. Dick Hatch, visited the Detroit Historical museum and the Children's museum last week.

Children Take Part In Halloween Party

BEVERLY.—Seven hundred children of Beverly school participated in the Beverly school Halloween party Thursday evening and celebrating to Fred Bigler, chairman, it was a tremendous success.

Following a costume parade the children were divided into three age groups for games. Grand prize winner was Ricky Muir with Sheree Leikert as runner-up.

Other prize winners were Peggy Young and Tommy Weiss for preschool group; Fredrick Compton and Robert Jensen for the kindergarten; Karen Carlson and Dennis Thompson, first grade; Jennifer Wills and Sheree Leikert, second grade; Linda Lamb and Rusty Andeer, third grade.

Fred Murray and Sue Zeheder, fourth grade; Ricky Muir and Michael Tomes, fifth grade; and Robert Lutz and Carol Graham for the sixth grade.

Mrs. Neal to Speak On Topic of Braille

BEVERLY.—At the Nov. 12 meeting of the Hannah guild of the Lutheran church of the Ascension, Mrs. R. Neal, a member of the Grace Lutheran church of Redford will speak on the subject of Braille. Mrs. Neal is editor of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League quarterly of the English district.

She will speak about the work she and others are doing in bringing the gospel to the blind through Braille. She spends a great deal of time transcribing prayers into Braille. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Paul Shippert, Mrs. W. Leopold and Mrs. E. Wolff.

Greenfield Pupils Plan 'Penny Drive'

BEVERLY.—Pupils at Greenfield school have been busy with their "Penny Drive" to raise funds for the purchase of tulips and balloons to brighten up the courts around the school.

The Beverly Hills garden club members are planning to assist the youngsters when they receive their bulbs by showing them the intricacies of planting. Next spring should see some fine results of their drive and efforts.

Merrill C. Adams Real Estate & Mortgage Loans

975 South Hunter Blvd.
Birmingham, Michigan

Office 61 6-7678
RES. 61 6-6783

Electrical Industry convention at Greenbrier, Va.

Last week end, they traveled to South Bend, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Lamoureux of Birmingham to attend the Notre Dame-Navy game.

The Thomas Hurns of Birchwood have had a busy October.

They recently returned from a two-week motor trip to New Orleans where they stayed at the Roosevelt hotel while attending the Tax Executives Institute convention.

While there they visited the antique shops and historical spots of the French Quarter and enjoyed a short trip to Biloxi. They also attended a cocktail party at the 200-year-old home of the first Spanish governor of Louisiana.

The Hurns also attended the

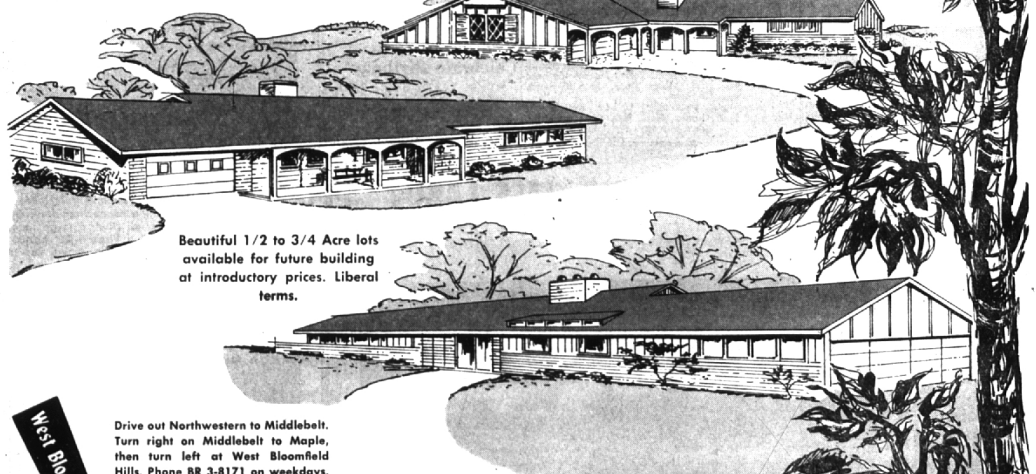

an air of grace and spaciousness...

West Bloomfield Hills

where dreams come true at Introductory Prices!

To add immediate incentive and hasten response we are offering you fantastically low introductory prices in this new and magnificent community.

All home sites are about 3/4 of acre in size and many are hilly and wooded. Paved streets and city water. The homes will be sold directly by the builder to you. Homes are priced from $24,600 including lot.

Proceeding from top to bottom these homes were constructed by:
Seymour Jaffe Building Co.
Falcon Building Co.
Largo Homes Inc.
Lawrence Construction
Tilchin-Aaron Builders, Inc.

Drive out Northwestern to Middlebelt. Turn right on Middlebelt to Maple, then turn left at West Bloomfield Hills. Phone BR 3-8171 on weekdays.

PLANT NOW
Flowering Dogwood
Pink, White, Red
Sweet Gum Trees
Tree or bush type
BULBS—Daffs, Tulips
Hyacinths

FLANNERY NURSERY
28500 Northwestern at Lasher
KE 1-6915, EL 6-0144

LEARN TO SKATE AT THE NEW BERKLEY SCHOOL OF ICE SKATING

- Private—Semi-private—Group
- Beginners—Advanced
- Complete Line of Skating Equipment
- Rink Available for Private Parties

3127 12 Mile Rd. Berkeley
LI 7-0744