

Southfield's Tom Ridley Halted

Southfield halfback Tom Ridley (23) is stopped by a Farmington defender, Ron Jordan (10), after a sizeable gain in a fourth quarter Blue Jay scoring march. Charging in to help is Farmington's Preston Ports (52). The Jays, after three score-

Maple Reserves Nip East Detroit For Fourth Win

Birmingham high's reserve grid-dera notched their fourth win in five starts Wednesday afternoon, eking out an 8-6 verdict over East Detroit at Birmingham.

A safety in the first quarter counted for the game's first score. George Forrest booted a 50-yard punt to the East Detroit two. On the second play a Shamrock back was nailed in the endzone.

FORREST scored the Maple touchdowns, diving over to cap a 40-yard drive. East Detroit scored in the third period.

The Birmingham reserves wind up their season Thursday afternoon at Port Huron.

University Hands Cranbrook Booters Second Loop Loss

CLEVELAND — Cranbrook lost its second straight Interstate Prep league soccer game Saturday, bowing to Cleveland University school, 3 to 2, here.

The Crane booters dominated first-quarter play, Larry Danto opening the scoring for Cranbrook. University tied it up just before halftime but the Cranes went in front again early in the third on a goal by Robert Bates.

UNIVERSITY deadlocked the score again late in the third and then tied the game on a corner shot past Cranbrook Goalie Mike Moyer just before the end of the contest.

The Interstate Prep soccer standings:
