Mrs. C. Himelhoch Stars in Comedy

Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony orchestra will sponsor opening night in Detroit of the Broadway comedy hit "No Time for Sergeants" Nov. 25 at 8:30 p.m. at the Shubert theatre.

Mrs. Charles S. Himelhoch of Birmingham will be the "sergeant" with "time" to chair the event which will benefit the maintenance fund of the Detroit Symphony. Among the committee heads, "privates," assisting her will be Mrs. T. T. Restrick.

The "army" of Juniors is marshalling its forces to see that pretre theatre dinners and cocktail parties add to the glamour of the opening.

Birmingham committee includes Mrs. D. H. Ashley, Mrs. R. L. Burton, Mrs. R. E. Cain, Mrs. S. Caplan, Mrs. A. M. Comb, Jr., Mrs. G. A. DeBoard, Mrs. L. W. Llewellyn, Mrs. J. C. Malstrom, Mrs. K. T. McKeeney, Mrs. J. O. Nordlie, Mrs. D. W. Potter, Jr. Still others are Mrs. W. C. Bestrick, Jr., Mrs. E. C. Eason, Mrs. R. I. Roberge, Jr., Mrs. B. G. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. G. H. Souter and Mrs. W. W. Wicklund.

Esther Middlewood Initiates Course

Esther Middlewood, director of the education section of the Michigan department of mental health, initiated a three-year course in lay leadership training recently at the Community House.

Twenty eight women from various organizations in the Birmingham area are taking part in the course which will cover the field of family life education.

Mrs. Lloyd Smith, vice chairman of the board of the Birmingham branch of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic, has been in charge of arrangements for the course.

'Fathers' Night' At Quarton School

Quarton PTA will present "Fathers Only" at the annual Open House Nov. 13 at 8 p.m. Designed to give Dad a closer insight into his child's school experience, the new "Fathers Night" will give him an opportunity to view examples of class-work.

Quarton's observance of American Education Week will also give mother a chance to visit her child's classroom, but her invitation will be for a daytime visit sometime during the week.

Ten Year Reunion

Checking over the 1947 graduates of Royal Oak high school to get a list for invitations for their big 10 year reunion dance Nov. 8 at Glen Oaks Country Club are (from left) Nelda Rowan, Roger Vogel, Ruth Munson and John Tuckfield.

November Dance On Social Agenda

Detroit Athletic club's November dinner-dance and floor show is on next week's social agenda, with many of the club's Birmingham, Bloomfield members planning to attend one or another of the six evenings from Nov. 11 through the 16.

Headliner of the show is to be Sue Carson, young comedian hailed by New York critics as a super-talented star. Stan Fisher virtuoso of the harmonica will play from his wide repertoire, ranging from Bach to boogie.

Among Birmingham folks with reservations for the opener are the William S. Siegelis, the Alan W. Joslyns and the Lester Colbys.

Others for the following evenings are Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Hawkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Scrivens and in a foursome with the Fred D. Kellers of Wing Lake are the H. B. Steggalls.

Still others are the John Denisons, the Sydney Norwoods, the Robert J. Swifts and the Gordon C. Appliquists.

Girl Scouts Convo In Philadelphia

Thirty fourth national convention of the national council of girl scouts of the USA opens at Convention Hall, Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 11 and closes Nov. 15.

Local delegates from Southern Oakland girl scout council will include Mrs. Webster Owen, Mrs. F. R. Fleischer, Mrs. Linn Hobbs, Mrs. Jane Commons, Mrs. Oliver Rodgers and Mrs. J. B. Roberts.

Table Decorations Demonstrated At Junior Women's Club

Birmingham Junior Women's Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Crawford of Derby, Birmingham, for a hobo breakfast. Serving on the committee were Mrs. Frank Ross, Mrs. Raymond Stevens, Mrs. Ray Kempton, Jr., Mrs. Harold Hanson and Mrs. S. J. Tanury. The club also met at the Community House Tuesday evening for a business meeting and social event with Mrs. Richard Hameister demonstrating Christmas wrappings and table decorations. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Lawrence Brown and Mrs. B. A. Aikens III.
