

Newlywed Robert Frederick Owens Honeymooning at Sanibel Island

Judith Ann Lenore Vander Pyl looked like a bride who stepped right from the pages of a beloved story book when she exchanged marriage vows with Robert Frederick Owen at 8 o'clock Friday at Kirk-in-the-Hills chapel.

Judith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Vander Pyl, Jr., of Lake Park drive, wore an exquisite gown of candlelight silk faille with a sabrine neckline and cathedral train. Her shoulder-length candlelight illusion veil was caught to a crown of pearls and lace.

TWIN MAIDS of honor were Carol Ann and Marilyn Menewisch. Mrs. Anthony Golovan, the bride's first cousin, also attended. They wore waltz-length frocks of blue chiffon with darker blue cummerbunds of velvet. Their headpieces were flat boxes of blue chiffon and they carried white fuji mums with blue streamers.

Flower girl was four-year-old Lisa Beckenhauer of Grosse Pointe, daughter of the bride's God-mother. She wore blue velvet and carried a basket of white rose petals.

ROBERT, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Owen of Meadowlark, Birmingham, had his half-brother, Conrad W. Burkman, as best man. Seating the guests were Donald A. Bosworth of Birmingham and George Robert Cole of Chicago.

For the wedding and reception following at Devon Gables, the bride's mother wore full length royal blue satin with a short train lined in emerald green satin. She wore a pearl studded tiara with royal blue illusion veil. Her shoes and bag were emerald green.

MOTHER of the groom wore a full-length gown of rose lace with wide chiffon trim and a matching headpiece.

Out of town wedding guests included the bride's paternal grandmother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Roberts of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Conrad W. Burkman of East Lansing, wife of the best man. After honeymooning at Sanibel Island, Fla., the couple will reside in Royal Oak.

Program Tonight On How Social Agencies Help

Oakland County Cooperative Extension service of Michigan State university, in cooperation with the Oakland County chapter of the National association of Social Workers has planned a program for professional workers in the social service field, community leaders and the individual citizen.

The program of "Know Your Social Agencies" is planned with a panel of six of the outstanding professional people in the social work field of Oakland county to be presented from 8 to 10 p.m. this evening in the Washington junior high school of Pontiac.

MRS. WALTER J. McCarthy of Dartmouth, Birmingham, family life chairman, is chairman of the planning committee, assisted by Mrs. Franklin Bena, 1933 Derby, Birmingham.

Moderator for the evening will be Marguerite Parrish, director of social work at Pontiac State hospital.

Among the speakers will be Rev. John A. Trese, director of Catholic social services; Madeline Half, director of Oakland Child Guidance clinic; Beba Rose Netler, YMCA director; Estella M. Martin, executive director of Oakland County Family Service; Richard Arthaud, casework supervisor; and Karl Bradley, UF.

The program will give information as to how the social agencies of Oakland County serve in the areas of medical assistance, psychiatric consultation, welfare, community service and family living.

Zonta Club Meeting
Zonta Club, Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills, will have a series of two meetings Nov. 12 and 19 concerning civilian defense with dinners at Birmingham Community House. Conducting the meetings will be Mrs. John F. Warren, coordinator of emergency welfare services of Oakland County.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
