

Ponders Decision

Unidentified prize-winners took over the offerings at the Halloween party prize table, and ponder their choice. Members of the Birmingham Lions club hand out the prizes at the end of the parade each year. Perfect weather added to the success of last Thursday's event sponsored by Birmingham merchants.

Here's Sputnik No. 3

Everybody liked little "Sputnik" who marched with 3400 other children in the big parade in downtown Birmingham Halloween night. "Sputnik" is Susie Chamberland, 3 1/2, of 1812 Graefield, who marched down W. Maple with her father. The successful, fast-moving community Halloween party, termed by many the best in years, was sponsored by Birmingham merchants. Over 800 youngsters attended a party at Earmun junior high school, 850 celebrated at Deryl junior high school, and 700 at the Birmingham high school. Total number feted by the merchants, despite withdrawal of several schools from the party, was 5500.
