Fall Activities Scheduled By Many Area Residents

The fall season is getting under way with many activities which have been planned by North Adams residents. Mrs. George Jones of Dowling road entertained 35 members of the University of Michigan alumnae club and their guests Oct. 1.

Proceeds from a toy demonstration that was presented will go toward the club's scholarship fund. This scholarship is in co-sponsorship with the Royal Oak senior. University of Michigan club.

Mrs. Owen Miller hosted a group, members of the American Cancer society, in her Hyland drive home Oct. 1. The society meets once a month to work on cancer pads. Box lunches were brought and Mrs. Miller served dessert and coffee. Attending were Mrs. F. Lindburg, Mrs. Michael Kovacs, Mrs. L. J. H. fin, Mrs. George Robb and Mrs. R. Krupnik.

The North Adams road home of Mrs. J. Green was the setting for a bridge luncheon on the afternoon of Oct. 2. Attending were members of a circle of the United Presbyterian church in Birmingham. Assisting Mrs. Green were Mrs. Donald Smith, Mrs. Terrence Oates, Mrs. Carl Durbin, all of Detroit.

Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Oshkoff of Oakhill drive entertained at a bridge luncheon recently. The guests were members of the Redeemer Lutheran church in Birmingham.

Present were Mrs. Theodore Wiggarter, Mrs. Craig Miller, Mrs. Clifford Stanton, Mrs. Alvin Knorr, Mrs. Boydon Jann, Mrs. Lester Markoff. Others were Mrs. Richard Oshkoff, Mrs. Jerome Fitts, Simmons, and Mrs. Malow's sister, Mrs. Aldor Carstens of Grosse Pointe.

A luncheon was hosted by Mrs. George Robb in her Pine Hill drive home Thursday. The guests included Mrs. A. Conner, Jr., Mrs. Don Steinhagen, Mrs. Joseph Geibel and Mrs. Ray Cummings.

Thursday evening a "coffee klatch" was hosted by Mrs. Michael Bell of Batterman Hill drive. The 12 guests were residents of the North Adams area.

Before attending the "Fall Ball" at the Eastover school on the evening of Sept. 27, the George Jones entertained the John Costellos of Greerwood road and the John Hamiltons of Eastover drive.

The Pine Hill drive home of the George Robbs was the scene of a cocktail party Sept. 28. After the party the 14 guests proceeded to the Sigma Alpha sorority charity dance in Birmingham.

A record crowd witnessed the Spartans and the Wolverines Little Football league game Friday evening.

The Spartan youth varsity were really "plicking" and won 12 to 6. The varsity lost but are looking forward to their rematch later in the season.

Hugh Carney of Sussex road hosted a council meeting of the Cub Scouts of pack B-11 and the Boy Scouts of troop B-11, at his home Oct. 1.

Newly appointed officers of the cub scouts are: Hugh Carney, chairman; Clinton Cook, cub master; Elmer Plaxton and Robert Lend, assistant cub masters; Joseph Paulick, treasurer; David De Witt, advancement; Emerson Wolfgang, special events; Sam Vetrano, membership and Charles Cook, secretary.

The boy scouts newly appointed officers are: Norman Barnes, chairman; Murray Osburn, scout master; John L'Hote, assistant scout master; Robert Rugg, advancement and Emerson Hough, outdoor chairman.

The Cub scouts of pack B-14 held their first pack meeting of the season in the multi-purpose room of the Eastover school Sept. 30. The pack meeting was centered around "H-o-m-e-stead",

The John Gilberts of Haddington road spent five days at the Otsego ski lodge recently. While there, they attended the Michigan association of Radio and TV Broadcasters convention. The lodge is located at Hidden valley near Gaylord, Mich.

Upon their return they repacked and spent a weekend at Wheeling, W. Va., visiting friends, the Walter Pattersons.

Houseguests at the home of the Robert Hughes at North Adams road are Mrs. Hughes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Saboury of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The Sabourys are visiting during the month of October and are formerly of Detroit.

Hughes parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hughes, also of Fort Lauderdale, are visiting here also. The O. H. Hughes are originally from friends throughout the area before returning to Florida.

The Leslie Keelers of Orchard Hill drive have had Mrs. Charles Keeler, Keeler's mother, visiting here from Ithaca, Mich., for the past three weeks.

Kimberly Ann is a new member in the John Gilbert household on Haddington road. She was born Aug. 2, and weighed 7 lbs. 8 oz. The Gilberts have a son, Tripper, 5 years old.

Eastover PTO officers met at the Sussex road home of Hugh Carney Thursday evening. The group made plans for their next PTO meeting at the school and party plans for Halloween.

Mrs. Hazel Babcock, fair chairman, has announced that the Pierce fair has twenty-six different concessions to offer to the public this year. Among some of the most popular ones will be the live ponies.

The ghost house and sponge-toss are expected to cause excitement among the younger set while the little ones may enjoy the cowboy rides, fish pond or "rust" in the supervised nursery. Dinner will be served in the cafeteria and the snack bar will offer a complete line of snacks, plus pop.
