'Family Life Literature' Topic of Group Lecture

"There are books other than 'Dr. Spock' to guide you more smoothly through the perils of raising a family." That is what members of the Graefield Home Extension club learned when Mrs. Walter McCarthy presented a lesson on "Family Life Literature" at the fall meeting.

Emphasizing the fine quality of current literature in this field, Mrs. McCarthy suggested material in books and pamphlets in such areas as family unity, pre-school, adolescence, and marriage counseling. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Howard Norman, 6060 Beech, Birmingham, with Mrs. George Coombs and Mrs. Harold Haxes as co-hostesses. On Oct. 23, the meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Donald Fraser of Vernon drive. A representative from the Birmingham League of Women Voters will be guest speaker.

A few days of fresh air and fishing was spent by the Charles Penningers of Witherbee road at Rollway cabins on the Au Sable river near East Tawas, Mich. recently. Upon their return, they stopped in Bay City and also viewed the Lumberman's monument.

Daughter Peggy, enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Penninger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whalen, of Detroit, while their son, Willie, romped around the home of Mrs. Penninger's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Deben of Royal Oak.

Newcomers to the Birmingham area were welcomed last week at a luncheon sponsored by the Holy Name Altar society at St. Ann's hall. Those present from the Troyton Manor area were Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Maurice Baumann, Mrs. Donald Nanry, Mr. John Tardiff, Mrs. Harry Leathers of Derby road announce the arrival of a son, Edward Louis, born Oct. 2. The baby weighed 6 lbs., 6 oz.

They have a daughter, Mary Kathleen. Here to greet her new grandson is Mrs. Edward C. Huebner from Alliance, Ohio.

Mrs. Thomas Schulte of Witherbee road entertained her monthly bridge group Wednesday, the first meeting of the fall season.

Gathered in the gaily decorated game-room talking over their summer trips and experiences were Mrs. Thomas Griffin, Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. George Benner, Mrs. Harry Van Allen, Mrs. William Donaldson, Mrs. Harold Day and Mrs. Vernon Doering.

Just returned from a trip abroad are Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe Franke of Graefield road.

Combining business with pleasure, they spent most of their two-month trip in Germany and a few days in England.

St. Jane de Chantel guild of Troyton Manor started off its fall season by holding a toy demonstration for guild members and their friends at St. Ann's hall of Holy Name church.

The boys were explained and demonstrated and after the selections were made, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, chairman for the evening, served coffee and tea with the assistance of her co-hostesses, Mrs. James Power, Mrs. Harry Leathers, Mrs. Robert Dyla and Mrs. Donald Nanry.

Newcomers to the Graefield Terraces are Mr. and Mrs. James L. Rice and their 2½-month-old son, David. They are residing at 754 Graefield.

A graduate of Kenyon college in Ohio, Rice majored in political science and was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He is associated with the McGraw Hill Publishing Company.

Mrs. Rice is a graduate of Wellesley college in Wisconsin. They both hail from Chicago.

An evening of bridge is enjoyed by both and Rice is a golf enthusiast.
