Group Discusses Membership Drive

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Membership committee of the South Berkshires Women's association met last week at the home of membership chairman, Mrs. Alexander Nead on Leamond drive to discuss continuation of the membership drive.

Charter membership will close in December. All women in the area between 12 and 13 miles, Evergreen and Lahser are invited to join the association.

The main objective of the organization is the furtherance of continually improving community relations in the area. Also, they shall cooperate with the South Berkshires protective association and the Berkshire Hills protective association.

Assisting Mrs. Nead are Mrs. Milford Pinkerton, Mrs. Maurice Rogers, Mrs. Donald Seby, Mrs. Edward Nubar, Mrs. Anthony Foley, Mrs. William Cheer and Mrs. Patrick Welsh.

Boys Teen Club Elects Officers

VALLEY WOODS—A ninth grade teen club for boys has been formed under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Groves and Mrs. Kenneth Walling. Last Saturday the group met at the home of Dan Groves to decide what plans could be made.

Officers were elected with Dan Groves, president; John Heger, treasurer; Bob Joyn, social chairman; Jack Howell, Sgt. at arms; Larry Sevier, Neil Wang, Tony Weber, clean up and decoration and Pat O'Connor, Jim Stephenson and Bob Tschman as callers.

Two meetings a month are planned with Oct. 26 the next date for roller skating. Interested ninth grade boys should contact Dan Groves.

Parade to Star Goblins, Ghosts

VALLEY WOODS—When the music from the calliope sounds forth on Oct. 25 at 3 p.m., all the little goblins, ghouls, and ghosts make believers of Valley Woods will gather for their annual Halloween parade sponsored by the Federated Women's association.

This year "treats" will be given only to children under 12 who participate in the parade. The line will form at the school grounds on Bellview trail, proceed down Smallwood drive to the joined yards of Chuck and Ken Kittle.

Older, doughnuts and coffee will be served by the association board members. A special invitation is extended to all newcomers in the area to join in this year.

International Tea Has Oriental Theme

WESTCHESTER—The International Tea at Fairlane, the Ford estate, will draw a group of members from the Westchester WNGFA. Attending will be Mrs. C. K. Olin, Westchester branch International chairman.

The oriental theme of the tea, will be carried out in the flower arrangements designed by Mrs. John Schuster and Mrs. Francis Matousek. Mrs. Chester Sharpe, Mrs. Herbert Graebner and Mrs. Roland Filler will bring cookies for the refreshment committee.

To lend atmosphere, the tea members were requested to wear authentic costume. Mrs. Oulmette will wear a Chinese mandarin coat lent her by Mrs. Karl Potter, president of the Westchester WNGFA.

Halloween Party

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The South Berkshires H-F-T Teen club is busy with preparations for its Halloween costume dance party to be Oct. 25 at the home of Claude Young on Leamond drive. All area teenagers are invited to attend.
