Pi Beta Phi to Sponsor Arrowcraft Tea and Sale

Bloomfield Hills Pi Beta Phi Alumnae club will sponsor an arrowcraft tea and sale of handweaving and other crafts from the Phi Beta Settlement school at Gatlinburg, Tenn.

Open to anyone interested in fine workmanship and the restoration of native crafts, the tea will be Oct. 23 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Bull, 2780 Broadway, Birmingham.

PURPOSE of the tea is to sell the exquisite handcrafted articles—everything from table linens and baby clothes to hearth brooms and earrings.

This weaving is done in the mountain homes under the supervision of Phi Beta Settlement school, which gives vocational instruction as well as elementary and high school education to the mountain people of the Great Smoky area of Tennessee.

AMONG THOSE pouring will be charter members of the alumnae club, Miss Helen Hatfield, Mrs. H. A. King, Mrs. F. H. McKinney, Mrs. N. F. Hadley, Mrs. W. L. Schaffner, Mrs. Vance Day, Mrs. Paul Eaton.

Assisting with arrangements will be Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Arthur Brennan, Mrs. Henry Merker and Mrs. W. S. McNary.

BAA to Present Picasso Film

B'ham Women Going to Workshop

Eight Birmingham League of Women Voters representatives will travel to Allen Park next Monday to an area Workshop.

Those attending will be Mrs. Thomas Shelham, Mrs. George Tabbutt, Mrs. George Hildinger, Mrs. Harvey Dine, Mrs. William Hammond, Mrs. Alfred Duvick, Mrs. Alan Perkins, and Mrs. William E. Esery.

The goal of the workshop is to help the local leagues of Michigan launch their campaigns in support of calling a Constitutional Convention in Michigan in 1958.

So that Birmingham Voters will be informed, when asked to vote next year on the call for a Constitutional Convention, the LWV of Birmingham is offering without charge speakers on this topic for Birmingham area organizations.

The publication, "Know Your State" is available at a small charge now.
