MRS. THOMAS F. DEVERAUX

Refuge Church Scene Of Saturday Marriage

Catherine Ann Justin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William John Justin of Orchard Lake, and Thomas Francis Devereaux of Birmingham were united in a Nuptial Mass witnessed by 600 guests. Father Giles Bartol officiated at the ceremony at 10 o'clock Saturday in Our Lady of Refuge church, Orchard Lake.

The bride chose an Empire style gown of white tulle with Alencon lace and seed pearl trim on the bodice. The bell skirt was accented by a chapel-length train which fell from a tiny back bow. Her lace gauntlets were of the same Alencon as the bodice trim. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a crown of pearls and palettes. A pearl choker was the only bridal jewelry.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white miniature snowdrift mums centered by a white orchid.

MRS. ROBERT WATKINS of Columbus, Ohio, was the matron of honor. Mrs. John Edward Coe of Kalamazoo, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Gerrie Godin of Grosse Pointe and Miss Sheila Flannery of Orchard Lake were the bridesmaids.

All bridal attendants were gowned alike in peacock blue velvet. The lace bodices were in harmony with the empire design of the bridal gown. Their headpieces were dyed-to-match feather caps with delicate pearl trim. The flowers were arrangements of decorations were in use in profusion at the club entrance, on the mantel, on the buffet table and the bride's table. The guests enjoyed champagne and dancing during the afternoon.

WHEN THE COUPLE left on a northern Michigan honeymoon, the bride was wearing a royal blue wool suit-dress. The sheath dress was topped with a jacket which featured a black broadtail collar and lining. With this she wore black accessories and the white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After October 26, the couple will be at home at 1714 Graefield road, Birmingham.
