Members Get Acquainted At Area 'Koffee Klatch'

A "Koffee Klatch" in order for the women of the area affiliated with the Redeemer Lutheran church to become better acquainted was held in the home of Mrs. T. P. Gobenke, 1455 Wrenwood, Thursday.

Acting as hostesses with Mrs. Gobenke were Mrs. John Hogelstein, Mrs. Richard Nuffer and Mrs. Michael Rippon. The women served breakfast and made many new and interesting acquaintances.

Spending a few days enjoying the beautiful autumn scenery in northern Michigan and the upper peninsula are Mr. and Mrs. Michael W. R. Davis of Grassfield Court.

The Davises, who moved here recently from Florida, took advantage of a business trip to view for the first time such highlights as the Mackinac bridge, Mackinac island and the locks at Sault Ste. Marie.

A farewell cocktail party for Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Oak Park was given recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman of Brooklawn road. The group attending were neighbors in Oak Park before "house buying" separated them. The Browns moved to Canton, Ohio.

Bearing gifts of a modern salad bowl, Lazy Susan, and a picture album as a remembrance were Mr. and Mrs. Frances Gara, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davey and Mr. and Mrs. W. Rogers.

Little Cathie Decker celebrated her fourth birthday recently by entertaining some of her playmates at a party.

Using a circus motif, the children were seated around a table centered by a raven decorated clown cake. Guests included Nancy Soufy, Sally Spatz, Judy Lohia, Pam McFarland, John Reardon, Tim Murphy and brother Todd.

Cathie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Decker of Brooklawn road.

To climax the festivities, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bopp, maternal grandparents arrived in time to enjoy some of the birthday cake.

Due to an arm injury during a final baseball game at Briggs stadium, Mr. and Mrs. Norm Zauchin are subletting an apartment on Grassfield road with their two children, David, 4 years old, and two-year-old Jean.

Zauchin is originally from this area whereas, Mrs. Zauchin hails from Birmingham, Ala. They now make their summer home in Boston, Mass., since Zauchin is a professional baseball player with the Boston Red Sox and plays first base.

Come spring, the Zauchins will head for Sarasota, Fla., for spring training, but before that, Zauchin will limber-up at the bowling alleys since the golf season has ended.

Mrs. Francis Morze of Brooklawn road entertained for her son Mark on his seventh birthday recently.

The children were taken to lunch at one of the local restaurants where they also enjoyed a birthday cake.

Guests included, Jimmy Eckberg, Stevie Miner, Mike Terry, Webb Barnes, Mark's brothers and sister, Craig, Brian, and Mita and his aunt Mrs. Frank Barnes.

A combination afternoon bridge and baby shower was held at the home of Mrs. R. G. Blackfield of Grassfield road. The recipient of the beautifully wrapped gifts bearing "little garments" was Mrs. Jack Knowles also of the Grassfield Terraces for her new son.

Others present were Mrs. Joseph French, Mrs. Fred Barr, Mrs. John Houch, Mrs. Charles Gobel, Mrs. Robert Mangis and the latter's mother, Mrs. Hawkins who is visiting from Birmingham, Ala.

Using the bronze hues of fall for the table setting, Mrs. Frank Barnes, 1027 Brooklawn, invited present members of Eta Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority to her home for a tea honoring a new member, Mrs. Leo Case. The tea was Oct. 29 from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Those attending from the Troyton Manor area were Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Hugh Goolgoly, Mrs. Roger Cleary, Mrs. Stanley Crego, Mrs. Stuart Hansen, Mrs. Ted Sura, Miss Dottie Smith, Mrs. Lee Griffith, Mrs. Robert Carley and Mrs. Robert Gasvoda.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker of Brooklawn road returned this past week from a business trip to St. Joseph, Mich.

While there, the Barkers enjoyed entertaining customers and Mrs. Barker found time for her favorite pastime of antique shopping to add new items to her collection at home.

One of the local bridge groups met recently at the home of Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr., of Witherbee road.

The two tables of bridge included, Mrs. Clyde Mulhern, Mrs. Roger Cleary, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Leo Case, Mrs. Robert Kaufman, Mrs. Robert Distler and Mrs. Donald Hibbert.

Newcomers to the area are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hardig and their 16-month-old daughter Lori Ann, 1957 Derby.

Hardig is an account executive on the Dow Chemical account for McManus, John and Adams. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan law school and a member of Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Phi law fraternity.

Mrs. Hardig graduated from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

October 24, 1957 THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC 5-C

where she majored in dental hygiene. While at Miami University, she joined Alpha Omicron Phi sorority.

An evening of bridge is enjoyed by both the Hardigs and when weather permits, Hardig enjoys a round of golf.

Mrs. Charles Hooker entertained her bridge group in her Brooklawn home recently. The women have been meeting bi-weekly for the past eight years and look forward to their evenings together.

The United Foundation area chairman for district seven, Mrs. Howard Ross of Witherbee road, authored her co-workers in her home last week for dessert and coffee and to lay plans for their forthcoming campaign.
