

Lathrup Social Briefs

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Evers of Lathrup for the week was their daughter, Mrs. W. K. Kellogg of Park Ridge Ill. Along with their other daughter, Carol, the Evers made up a party of six and all attended a football game Saturday. Carol is now teaching art at the Berkeley Elementary school.

A guest of the Robert C. Bowers of Deland is Bowers' mother, Mrs. Mabel P. Bowers, from Geneva, N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hogle of San Rosa, and children, Karen and Robin flew to Kansas City, Mo. where they visited Hogle's sister, Miss Jean Hogle. Visiting at the same time were Hogle's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hogle, Jr. from Pleasantville, N.Y. They all came back together to spend several days here.

Canterbury Gardens Social Briefs

Guests of the Hilliard Wilsons of Wilshire were Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Allen of Toronto, Canada, who were here over the Canadian Thanksgiving holiday.

Guest of the Robert Boltwood of Red Leaf Lane was Mrs. John Ariel of Bombay, India. Mrs. Ariel is here for further advanced study in nursing and is currently studying at Harper hospital.

A surprise birthday party with 35 guests was held for Brian Leavy of Red Leaf Lane on Sept. 29.

Fellowship Plans Church Workshops

LATHRUP—The Detroit Women's fellowship is meeting at the Community Congregational church Oct. 30. The ladies of the Women's association of the church will act as hostesses. There will be work shops held at 10 a.m. on various phases of women's church work.

At 1:30 p.m. the group will be addressed by Miss Lucille D. Frost, who is associate secretary of the National Women's fellowship and who will speak on "High Purpose and High Resolve." Tickets for the luncheon at 12:30 are $1.00, and reservations must be made by Oct. 25 by calling Mrs. Robert Stogert. A bake sale will be held at this meeting by Circle 1.

Lathrup Village

MARIAN EILER
ELGIN 6-0772

DOROTHY ZATELL - ELGIN 6-2039

Brownies Plan Overnight Visit

LATHRUP—Tomorrow afternoon at 9:30, three troops of brownies, with their leaders, will leave for an overnight visit to Greenfield Village. Most of the little girls in troops 766, 767 and 768 have never been away from their families before and excitement will run high.

A box social supper has been planned for the young ladies so that they may feel free to move about as they desire. There will be games and dancing in the gym during the evening and later they will bed down in the dormitory.

On Saturday morning the group will breakfast at Clinton Inn and enjoy a guided tour of Greenfield Village.

The group will be accompanied by Mrs. R. H. Ackles, Mrs. Robert Deland, Mrs. John Coug, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. E. J. Stogert, Mrs. Robert Kahl, Mrs. E. J. Nelson and Mrs. Frances Zacher.

Cambridge Village Social Briefs

A social gathering of the family of Patricia Jacob of Lexington parkway was held Oct. 17 in honor of Patricia's confirmation at Our Lady of LaSalette church. Present were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dineen, an aunt, Mrs. Calvin Campbell and son, Shelly, and five uncles who live in Oak Park. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery from Birmingham.

The Leo Cartiers of Shagbark, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Banyan of Birmingham, gathered at the Forest Lake country club where they took a chartered bus to the football game in Ann Arbor, then returned for dinner and dancing.

A dinner and theater party for 18 was held Sunday to celebrate Kenneth Bengort's seventh birthday. Friends and relatives of Kenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bengort of Spring Arbor, were taken to see "Around the World in 80 Days."

Guests included the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Numeth of Flint, Oscar Spaly and sons, Craig and Bob, from Ann Arbor, Doug Hamilton from Ann Arbor, and Joseph Pintel and daughter, Carol Sue, from Goodrich.

Cranbrook Village Social Briefs

A smart and bridge get-together was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Persak of Southgate drive. Guests attending were Mrs. Wm. Harris, Mrs. Robert Dearth, Mrs. Donald Mages, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, Mrs. Gayle Smith, Mrs. Carl Barnhouse, Mrs. John Bice and Mrs. Richard Streby.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Binkilde of Southgate drive will give a family dinner party to celebrate young Peter's first birthday, Oct. 28. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jens Binkilde will be there, as well as Mrs. Binkilde's folks, Mr. and Mrs. K. Jensen. Sister Paula, 2, will also enjoy the festivities.

Douglas Master, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Master of Fall River road celebrated his ninth birthday Oct. 19. Guests who attended the party were Steven Zwirn, Ronnie and Lynn Batten, Billy Persak, Bobby Haines, Billy Chase, Pamela Bowen, Margaret and Kathy Berry, Mark Severson and Lynn Beesley. Joining in the fun were Douglas' two brothers, Michael, 10, and Bruce, 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitney of Longcrest, and daughter Linda, just returned from a four-day trip to Sault St. Marie, Canada where they attended a wedding of a relative.

A new arrival to the Robert Smith family of Longcrest is Joe Dee who weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces at birth. Other children are Jan, 3½, and Jill, 2.

Business Meeting

OAKLAND HILLS—A meeting of the Oakland Hills Women's club was held Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. William Putz of Langcrest. Approximately 20 women attended. A business meeting was held and then entertainment in the form of cards and games. On the entertainment committee were Mrs. Putz, Mrs. Anthony Gallarini and Mrs. Carmen Nicklin.

Want ads cannot be accepted after 5 p.m. each Tuesday.

Neighborhood Sets Halloween Agenda

OAKLAND HILLS—A neighborhood celebration is being planned for Halloween in the Oakland Hills subdivision. At 6 p.m. all children will gather at Longcrest and Pierce, with a parent accompanying them, going from house to house, until they end up at Fairview Crescent and Pierce.

There, in front of the Frank Torma residence, a bonfire will be lit and coffee, doughnuts and a beverage will be served. Three prizes will be awarded and games will be played.

On the committee preparing the celebration are Mrs. Edwin Wask, Mrs. Edward Dushenko, Mrs. Joseph Minkovic, Mrs. Addison Johnson, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Anthony Gallarini, Mrs. Marion Pajsa and Mrs. Henry Whitney.

Oakland Hills Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitney of Longcrest, and daughter Linda, just returned from a four-day trip to Sault St. Marie, Canada where they attended a wedding of a relative.

A new arrival to the Robert Smith family of Longcrest is Joe Dee who weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces at birth. Other children are Jan, 3½, and Jill, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pulte of Balaewood attended Mrs. Pulte's brother's wedding in South Bend, Ind., where they were attendants in the wedding. Children, Mary Beth and Mike, accompanied their parents.

Want ads cannot be accepted after 5 p.m. each Tuesday.

Sanctuary Society To Sponsor Fair

LATHRUP—The ladies of the Sanctuary society of St. Bede's church have been busy these past months getting ready for their fall fair Nov. 10. There are 15 guilds that are busy preparing items for their booths. They are planning many homemade and unusual items for both children and adults.

The men of the Ushers club also have plans for the fair. Among other activities they hope to have pony rides for the children that day. Everyone is invited to attend.

Club Project

LATHRUP—On his day off Dr. Gerald Fitzgerald becomes the outdoor man hunting the "elusive" pheasant, on his evenings off he is working on the new project the Lions Club has. Boosting their own city, the club will publish a collection of facts and organizational information about Lathrup.

Bloodmobile

LATHRUP—The American Red Cross bloodmobile will visit Community Congregational church on Nov. 8.

New York City plans to spend 60 million dollars over a five-year period for building and renovations on Manhattan's 23 public high schools and a projected community college.

Basements waterproofed TW 1-2000

New Granddaughter Square Dance Club Adds New Members

LATHRUP—Guests at the Lathrup Village Square Dance club dinner and dance Saturday were Ed and Virginia Marks, Howard and Odessa Tucker, Harry and Dorothy Morris, Charles and Mary Harvey, Herman and Ruth Pabian, Craig and Ginny Smith, Peg and

Gene MacCraken, Harold and Phyllis Welch and Carl and Mary Stapleton. New members welcomed into the club were Eleanor and Steve Slavik, Curt and Norma Terova, Peg and Troy Tate, Bob and Jean Wonderlich and Arley and Charlotte VanMeer.

OAKLAND HILLS AREA

- Three Bedrooms • Custom Built 1954 • Parquet Floors • 1½ Baths
- Pine Paneled Activities • Two Fireplaces • Lot 170 x 270 • Breezeway

Dishwasher — Calculator — 2½-car attached Garage — Attic storage — Aluminum storms and screens — Large closets — Conveniently located utility.

$32,850

Open Sat. and Sun. 2 to 5
Otherwise by appointment—MI 6-4680

7260 PARKHURST DR.

One block north of 14 Mile — west of Lahser

HOMES THAT PAY YOU COMPLIMENTS

Bloomfield Village—a fine residence for both "home life" and entertaining.

Set apart from the ordinary—an unusual ranch with distinctive decorating appeal. You will find it just as delightful and livable as it looks.

In addition to the living room with a fireplace, there is a paneled library, and also a Lauderdale room and recreation room. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, and a lav. The garage has built-in storage closets. All carpeting is included.

Just waiting for you to move in, near the school, this value is without equal at $43,500. Just $10,000 down will buy it!

Perfectly by tacked-down carpeting, draperies, and a fireplace, there is a large kitchen, 3 bedrooms, attached garage. Really a home in superb condition!

A wonderful choice because it's so good looking, so easy to keep clean. A clever choice because it's custom built, but budget priced. Only $19,800. An F.H.A. mortgage is available to merely $3100 down.

FORWARD PLANNED IN 1936 by Architect Bissell — appeal dividends today . . .

- For Mother: First floor utility room. Living room with both a fireplace and bay for pleasant entertaining, an entirely separate dining room.
- For Father: Fieldstone and brick construction. Oversized garage. All copper plumbing.
- For the Children: Paneled TV room. 4 bedrooms with 2 baths, and a first floor lav. School bus at the door to Beverly and Birmingham High.
- For the Budget: This big colonial is on a large lot with the most beautiful of landscaping; the lawn is as soft and thick as deep-pile carpet. Near the Birmingham Country Club for only $49,500. Financing available.

A. L. DOENGES CO.

Residential Custom Builder

COLONIAL
RANCH — CAPE COD — FARM

A Good Assortment of Plans
For Your Consideration

Midwest 6-1600 — 4084 W. Maple

A DAY YOU'LL REMEMBER

WHEN YOU INSPECT EITHER OF THESE FINE RANCH HOMES

Large carpeted living room at back facing lovely landscaped and fenced yard.

A cheerful kitchen with large breakfast area and step saving first floor laundry.

Three airy bedrooms, large Hollywood bath and extra lavatory.

Full basement with fireplace in finished recreation room. Bloomfield schools. Priced for immediate sale at $27,500.

Convenient Terms

Only $35,800

Near Quanton School in one of Birmingham's finest ranch home areas.

Superbly constructed of face brick and containing three bedrooms, one and a half baths and 21 ft. family room.

Full basement. Oil heat.

Fenced yard, nicely landscaped.

Truly a fine home you and your family can be proud of.

See it now.

MARKLEY, ETTER AND VAN MAAREN, INC.

820 S. Woodward Ave., Birmingham

Midwest 4-1222 — Jordan 4-5800

Watt, Manuel & Snyder, Inc.

298 South Woodward
Midwest 4-6300

Realtors

Birmingham, Michigan
Jordan 6-2323