Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irvine of Worthington road and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pfeiffer of Thurston road, and several days recently in the Smoky mountains, just outside Gatlinburg, Tenn. They visited friends who are building a retirement lodge there.

One of their most exciting experiences was climbing a mountain, pulling up via ropes and vines. The beauty of the area at this time of year, was particularly impressive during their sight-seeing trips and hikes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kasameyer of Worthington road recently hosted their finance club at a T-Bone steak barbecue dinner, preceded by cocktails and hors d'oeuvres.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle, both of Wing Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peck of Pleasant Ridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schwab of Birmingham.

The group welcomed the new members, the Doyle and the Dugans.

Alfred Kasameyer left this week-end with his hunting party, Art Drumm of Detroit for partridge hunting at Black Lake. They stopped at Windermere lodge at Houghton lake for a couple of days of duck hunting and returned the first part of this week.

Bob Kasameyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kasameyer, visited at home Sunday and went duck hunting for a few hours. He is a freshman at the University of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. David Goodfellow of Worthington road packed an amazing amount of fun into their six-day visit to New York last week. Since their birthdays are one month apart, they made it a birthday celebration trip and treated each other to gifts while shopping on Fifth avenue.

To add to their fun, two different friends entertained them two nights at dinner and their last day they entertained their friends at a luncheon at the Waldorf.

Upon their arrival at the Biltmore hotel, a dozen long-stemmed roses from one of the friends and a telegram from the other greeted them in their room.

They spent a fun-packed week in which they saw four stage plays, "Bells are Ringing," "Auntie Mame" and "Lil Abner" and "New Girl in Town."

They took the boat cruise around Manhattan island, ate at the restaurant, visited the UN building, Wall street and old Trinity church and took the horse-drawn carriage through Central park.

To go to La Guardia airport from downtown NY, they took the helicopter service which proved to be most fascinating.

Progress Report Topic of Program
