Franklin Social Briefs

Life begins anew for a young local couple whose marriage was interrupted by greetings from Uncle Sam two years ago.

Seaman George R. Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pickering of Franklin road, returned home last Wednesday after a stint in Japan, Hawaii and Korea. Waiting for him was his wife, Marguerite, who has been teaching mathematics at Bloomfield Hills high school.

For the time being the young Pickering will make their home with Marguerite's family, the Ellis Premo's of Willowgreen in Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Patterson of S. Greenbrier have returned from a week in New York, combining business with pleasure. New from son, Mike, attending William and Mary college reveals that he is pledging Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Jack LeVan and Walter Pascoe, both of Garden Way, headed for the north woods last weekend to do a little hunting.

Of Colony Hill, the Nicholas Quints and the William Heffley's and their combined progenies numbering six (minus the newest Heffley baby) spent five days last week at cabins in the woods near Wolverine. While mamas tended small ones, cooked and relaxed together the fathers hunted partridge and woodcocks.

Mrs. Robert DeLonge was hostess at a Sunday afternoon tea.

honoring bride-to-be Georgianne Jensen of Detroit. Her 16 guests were friends from Detroit.

The resignation of Jack Roberts from the Franklin Players board of directors brought about the appointment of Chet Hard to fill the vacancy.

Taking advantage of the school holidays, the Eugene Kelly's of Redfern visited family in Chicago and had Dan Deizer of Willowgreen as their guest. It was a full weekend for the youngsters who took in all the important points of interest in the windy city, riding the 'L', the subway and buses.

While brother Dan was riding the 'big town', Nancy Deizer entertained a group of her friends with a scater hunt on Friday.

David Himman's birthday Saturday should have another try. There were enough little people on his guest list indisposed to change what should have been a very gala party into a very small, almost private affair.

Mr. and Mrs. William Worcester of Wing Lake road returned Monday from a brief holiday in Ibiza, N.Y.

The long weekend also gave the George Huffman family of Seene plenty of time to visit schools in Hackettstown, N.Y., with daughter, Ruth Ann, who will be graduating from high school in June and also visit eldest son, George, a plebe at Annapolis.

Franklin Community church school children will go trick or treating for UNICEF next Sunday from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Dressed in Halloween costumes, local children will accept contributions to aid in feeding sick and hungry children all over the world. Following the 'trick or treating' the youngsters will return to the church where a party is in store for them. They will be the guests of the Young Peoples group made up of teenagers in the seventh through twelfth grades. Mr. Norman Krieger is in charge of the entire program.

Almost every weekend at this time of year, the Sam Gawnes of Meadowdale go partridge hunting and two weeks ago they visited Beaver dam with the Richard Korn of Franklin Hills drive.

Their most recent trip took them to Beaver Island with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Thomas.

Betty Fraser's home on Franklin road provided all the comforts necessary for an after-the-game party Friday, with brother and sister, Paul and Beth Jones, as hosts to the high school crowd who have been gathering in one another's homes following gridiron events in Birmingham.

Adults to Wear Halloween Attire

FRANKLIN—Everybody can get into the act on Halloween. Parents and faculty of Franklin school are encouraged to don costumes, along with the students, for the annual Halloween fair tomorrow night.

In past years there have been a sprinkling of adult masqueraders mulling with the crowds of pint size gobkins. This has always created some merriment, that this year the PTA asks everyone to get into the Halloween spirit for the hours of 6 to 9 p.m.
