

MRS. DONALD C. CATON

Gift Pearls Accent Sweetheart Neckline

Norma Roberta Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ian C. Alexander of Bannaville street, carried a pale yellow orchid surrounded by stephanotis and ivy when she married Donald Cameron Caton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Caton of Walled Lake.

Bodice and full length sleeves of the wedding gown were of chantilly lace over satin. The sweetheart neckline featured a string of pearls, a gift of the groom's mother, and the ballerina length skirt was fashioned of tulle over satin.

A beige satin cummerbund and bow highlighted her beige chiffon over tulle cocktail length gown. A beige satin cap and bronze and yellow daisy mums completed the ensemble.

Alvin McCallum of Walled Lake served as best man; Daniel Caton, brother of the groom, Martin Cameron, uncle of the groom and James Cameron, grandfather of the groom, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a disk rose lace over tulle cocktail length gown accented with a red

Director Stars In Opening Night

Even the director got into the act on opening night Friday when Birmingham Village Players presented the first of four performances of "The Teahouse of the August Moon."

Because Mrs. Albert Riebling was ill, Mrs. Carleton W. Scott took over the role of the Old Woman who sits atop a crowded rose corsage and grey accessories.

MRS. CATON CHOSE A teal blue silk tulle cocktail length gown with matching hat and accessories. A yellow rose corsage completed the outfit.

After their luncheon reception at Devon Estates the bride changed into a grey flannel suit with matching hat and gloves and black accessories for traveling to or from eastern states. Upon their return, the couple plan to make their home at Commerce Lake.

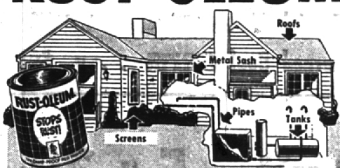

jump in one of the early scenes of this satire on American occupation forces in Okinawa.

"All during the long weeks of rehearsal, I had been playing havoc with my cast," Mrs. Scott said. Even Sakini (Warren Hersey, who plays a leading role) was sick one of those weeks. So I really was keeping my fingers crossed on opening night."

THE FINAL performance of this first public show of the Players' 35th season will be given Saturday evening at 9 p.m. in the Players' Chestnut street playhouse.

Tickets for that night are practically sold out, according to Mrs. J. G. Carmichael, ticket chairman. But there are seats available for tomorrow evening's performance at Grinnell's in Birmingham or by contacting Mrs. Carmichael, 2189 Hampton road, Southfield Township.
