

Niagara of Birmingham Branch Outlet Opens

Niagara of Birmingham, retail outlet of Niagara's "living furniture" line and built-in "cyclo-massage" motors, held its grand opening Monday at 297 E. Maple, east of Hunter boulevard.

The store is under direction of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Duey of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Fredericks of Royal Oak—thereby upholding one of Niagara's policies that each store shall be under supervision of a husband and wife team.

"Cyclo-Massage" motors built into each functional piece of furniture is designed to relax and ease nervous tension in the user, relieve fatigue, ease sore, aching muscles and increase circulation.

WHILE NIAGARA does not claim that its furniture will cure anything, they do say that medical research has proven that Niagara's thermo-cyclo massage will reduce and control weight, relieve muscle spasms, pain, and ease pain of arthritis, bursitis and rheumatism.
