

Wing Lake Social Briefs

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston of Forman drive attended the Michigan State Medical convention in Grand Rapids last Wednesday through Friday.

They returned home in time for the celebration of their daughter Lynda's 12th birthday Saturday. Her guests came for a Bermuda party at which they grilled hamburgers in the yard, played croquet and badminton and finished off with an unusual treasure hunt.

Linda's mother had incorporated the names of nine of the neighbors in tricky rhymes. Each one had to take pencil and paper and go to the different mail boxes and figure out the names that belonged with the rhymes. First one back with correct list received the prize.

Guests were Janet Zich, Linda Mushong, Susan Proper, Marcia Duval, Candy Wilson, Jane Hoffman, Elizabeth Shaw and Linda Mustard.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston entertained at dinner Saturday evening surprising Mrs. Ben Stevenson on her birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Beard and Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Anderson. The group square danced for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darling who have been enjoying their summer home up north were in for the past week and entertained at a family dinner Sunday evening. Present were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Darling and three sons of Foxcroft and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Finnegan and their two children of Ann Arbor.

Last Thursday Mrs. Darling entertained her Grandmother's club at luncheon after which they showed slides of their grandchildren, played Spill and Spell and sewed.

Jim Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle is back at Notre Dame university for his sophomore year. He is a commerce major.

He will go on the student trip scheduled for Oct. 12 when they will travel to Philadelphia for the Army-Navy-Duke football game and then on to New York City for the weekend.
