

Rodert A. Thom Painting Published

This oil painting by Robert A. Thom, 6160 W. Surrey, is the fifth to be published in the Parke-Davis "History of Medicine" series and appears in the October edition of "Therapeutic Notes," the firm's medical journal. It shows sick and afflicted pilgrims waiting in one of the Grecian Temples of Asclepius to take part in a ritual.

Traffic Mishaps Injure 6, Truck Driver Crushed

Six persons were injured in traffic accidents in Birmingham last week, and a seventh city resident was seriously injured in a mishap in Detroit.

Frank Sammut, 35, of 1389 Lake Park, Birmingham, a truck driver, was crushed Tuesday in a freak accident after delivering a load of slag. Sammut was pinned over the rear of the truck tractor, and a load of slag bore down on his abdomen.

He was given a good chance to recover by physicians at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital.

A 15-YEAR-OLD MOTOR scooter driver was rushed by ambulance to William Beaumont hospital at 9:15 p.m. Tuesday after his scooter was struck by a car at Northlawn and Pierce, Birmingham. The scooterist, Joseph E. Finley, Jr., 652 Bloomfield court, was treated and referred to his physician for care of a possibly fractured left hand. The motorist involved, William S. Phillips, 32, of 1599 Southfield, S. Phillips, 32, of 1599 Southfield.
